FISHER FAMILY HISTORY

Comp iled and written by J. T. Fisher, Blackwell, Okla.
(assisted in research and mimeographed by Chas. B. Duffy, Ponca City, Okla.)

LUDWIG FISHER was born and raised in Germany. He grew to manhood there and one day while strolling thru the Royal Observatory, he chanced to see a deer and shot and killed it. On returning home he related the incident to his father. His father, knowing this to be a crime punishable by penalty of death, prepared his son for the journey to America, took him to the port for sailing, and sent him to Culpepper County, Virginia. Ludwig settled there and in due time made the acquaintence of a lady whom he later married. This union reared a family of five sons.

ADAM FISHER, one of these sons, drifted over the mountains into Rockingham County, Virginia and settled there, where he eventually met and married Catherine Snider. They raised a family of seven sons and three daughters. The sons names were William, Joseph, David, Harvey, Jacob, Washington and Henry (who was the father of J.T.Fisher and his brothers and sisters).

This ADAM FISHER proved to be our grand-father.

In an early day, this family embarked in wagons and teams and made their way to the western part of Virginia and settled in the Upper Flats of Mason County. Shortly after landing there, they purchased a farm. This farm purchased by Adam Fisher was a 200 acre farm, for which he paid $400.; later he purchased an 80 acres adjoining it on the east for $80. He also obtained a patent on a 500 acre place. which he afterward sold to his two sons Joseph, and Henry(our father).

WILLIAM FISHER married a lady from Ohio and raised two daughters and one son. Catherine, the older daughter, married George McDaniel and raised two sons and two daughters; Franklyn and George, the sons, and Frances and Ella, the daughters. He also raised an illegitimate son, who drifted over into Putnam County, Virginia, and married, and raised two daughters and a son. The son J.M.Fisher married and raised a family of five or six sons and fully as many daughters.

(Oct.27, 1943. Several months have been spent in writing letters assembling the above data, and much of it is yet incomplete, due to our inability to get full responses to our inquiries. We regret the many mistakes we know this contains, and it incompleteness in many respects, but we've done the best we could with the material available. May we suggest that someone else each few years hence, bring this history down to date and mimeograph a "new edition thereof." May we in closing offer to Uncle Tom Fisher, on behalf of all of us, our deepest thanks for his untiring efforts in preserving and making available to us the early history of the Fisher Family. Chas. (Oct. 27, 1943. Several months have been spent in writing letters assembling the above data, and much of it is yet incomplete, due to our inability to ewt full responses to our inquiries. We regret the many mistakes we know this contains, and its incompleteness in many respects, but we've done the best we could with the material available. May we suggest that someone else each few years hence, bring this history down to date and mimeograph a "new edition thereof". May we in closing offer to Uncle Tom Fisher, on behalf of all of us, our deepest thanks for his untiring efforts in preserving and making available to us the early history of the Fisher Family.

THE NAME AND FAMILY OF FISHER

The name of FISHER is self-explanatory, being originally given to one who obtained his living by fishing. Some historians state that the family was originally Norman, but it seems more probable that it is of Saxon derivation as the early forms of the name in England were, in many cases, the same as those used in Germany and Holland today. The name is found on ancient records in the various spellings of Fyscher, Vyscher, Fyscer, Fysher, Fischere, Fischher, Fiscer, Fyssher, Fysseher, Fissher, Fisser, Fishere, Fischer, Fisher, and others, of which the form last mentioned is that most generally accepted today in America and England, and the form immediately preceding it is also frequently found but is believed to have been of more recent German and Dutch descent.

Among the earliest records of the name in England are those of Robert le Fyscer, of Buckinghamshire, about 1273; Margery le Fischere, of Huntingtonshire, at a slightly later date; Ibota and Alicia Fischher, of Yorkshire, in 1379; and Hugo and Walter Fissher about the same time.

Among the earliest records of the name in England are those of Robert le Fyzer, of Buckinghamshire, about 1272; Margery le Fisoner, of Huntingtonshire, at a slightly later date; Ibere and Alicia Fisoner, of Yorkshire, in 1279; and Hugo and Walter Fisher about the same time.

About the middle of the fifteenth century John Fisher was living in County Kent and was the father of Sir John who died in 1510 and of another son also named John, who was the father of John, Thomas, and Christopher, of whom the first was the father of John Fisher of Hertfordshire, who married a Miss Venables and had Edmond. This son Edmond was the father by his wife Anne Saunders of Edmond and William, of whom the first resided in County Essex and was the father by his wife, Catherine Cock, of Edmond, William, John, Catherine, Mary, and Frances.

In the latter part of the fifteenth century one Johannes or John Fisher of Shropshire had issue by his wife Anna Steuenton or Staunton of John, who made his home in Warwickshire and had issue by his wife, Katherina Digbie, of Clement and Thomas. The son Clement married Maria Repington and was the father by her of a son named Robert, who was the father in the early seventeenth century by his wife, Elizabeth Tirringham, of Clement and Thomas, and possibly of others.

Thomas Hawkens, alias Fisher, was living in Warwickshire in the early sixteenth century and was the father of Thomas, Richard, and John Fisher, of whom the first was the father by his wife, Winifred Holt, of Sir Edward Fisher, who married a daughter of Sir Richard Longe and had issue by her of John and Dorithye.

About the middle of the fifteenth century John Fisher was living in County Kent and was the father of Sir John who died in 1510 and of another son also named John, who was the father of John, Thomas, and Christopher, of whom the first was the father of John Fisher of Hertfordshire, who married a Miss Vernhiles and had Edmond. This son married the father by his wife Anne Beauchere of Edmond and William, of whom the first resided in County Essex and was the father by his wife, Catherine Cook, of Edmond, William, John, Catherine, Mary, and Frances.

In the latter part of the fifteenth century one Johnnes or John Fisher of Shropshire had issue by his wife Anna Elsmonton or Elsmuton of John, who made his home in Warwickshire and had issue by his wife, Katherine Digbie, of Clement and Thomas. The son Clement married Maria Hopkington and was the father by her of a son named Robert, who was the father in the early seventeenth century by his wife, Elizabeth Tirringham, of Clement and Thomas, and possibly of others.

Thomas Harkness, alias Fisher, was living in Warwickshire in the early sixteenth century and was the father of Thomas, Richard, and John Fisher, of whom the first was the father by his wife, Winifred Holt, of Sir Edward Fisher, who married a daughter of Sir Richard Lumpe and had issue by her of John and Dorithye.

About the beginning of the sixteenth century one William Fisher was living in Hertfordshire and was the father by his wife, Mary Vernon, of Thomas, who had issue by his wife, Elizabeth Brockett, of Richard. This Richard married Anne Brand and was the father of Edward of Gloucestershire (father of Sir Edward, who married Mary Challoner and was the father of Edward, Andrew, Thomas, Richard, James, George, and Anne), Richard (father of another Richard), and Thomas of London (father of Sir Thomas and others).

Willielmus or William Fisher was living in County Kent in the early sixteenth century. He married a Miss Friar, by whom he had issue of John and Robert. Of these sons, the elder, John, married Thomasin Betenham and had a son named Alexander, who was the father by his wife, Catharine Maplisden, of a son named John, who married Benetta Deering and was the father of George, John, Henry, and Elizabeth; and the younger son, Robert, married Joan Warncourt, by whom he had issue of Henry, who was the father by his first wife, Alice Wildish, of Alexander, Richard, and several daughters, and by his second wife, Joan Harenden, of a son named Walter, who was the father by his wife, Alice Woodyere, of Henry, Robert, Richard, and Alexander.

About the middle of the sixteenth century Thomas

About the beginning of the sixteenth century one William Fisher was living in Hertfordshire and was the father by his wife, Mary Vernon, of Thomas, who had issue by his wife, Elizabeth Brocklett, of Richard. This Richard married Anne Sewell and was the father of Edward of Gloucestershire (father of Sir Edward, who married Mary Chamberlayne and was the father of Edward, Andrew, Thomas, Richard, James, George, and Anne), Richard (father of another Richard), and Thomas of London (father of Sir Thomas and others).

William Fisher, or William Fisher was living in County Kent in the early sixteenth century. He married a Miss Fryer, by whom he had issue of John and Robert. Of these sons, the elder, John, married Thomasin Estenham and had a son named Alexander, who was the father by his wife, Christine Hopkinson, of a son named John, who married Bennetta Deering and was the father of George, John, Henry, and Nicholas; and the younger son, Robert, married Joan Warnecourt, by whom he had issue of Henry, who was the father by his first wife, Alice Wrighes, of Alexander, Richard, and several daughters, and by his second wife, Joan Hargraves, of a son named Walter, who was the father by his wife, Alice Woodyere, of Henry, Robert, Richard, and Alexander.

About the middle of the sixteenth century Thomas

Fisher was living in Worcestershire. He married Elizabeth Parker, who gave him at least three children, John, William, and Anna. Of these children, John married Johanna Potter of Shropshire and was the father of Richard (father by his wife, Maria Churchny, of Thomas, John, Edward, and five daughters), Phillippus, Thomas (who removed to the Netherlands about 1623), and numerous daughters; and William married Allice Roane and made his home in Bedfordshire, where he was the father of William, Thomas, Gideon, Jasper, and Elizabeth, of whom the son Gideon married Anne Dayrell and was the father of Gideon, Thomas, William, Edmund, and six daughters.

Not without distinction in Great Britain and other parts of Europe, where the Fishers were, for the most part, of the landed gentry and yeomanry, the family was well represented among the earliest settlers in colonial America.

The first of the name in America is believed to have been Thomas Fisher, who came from County Suffolk, England, to Cambridge, Mass., in 1630 and later removed to Dedham, in the same colony. By his wife Elizabeth he was the father of Samuel, Thomas, and Constance.

As early as 1637 Anthony Fisher, who is said to have been the son of another Anthony Fisher of County Suffolk, Fisher was living in Gloucestershire. He married Elizabeth Parker, who gave him at least three children, John, William, and Anne. Of these children, John married Johanna Porter of Shropshire and was the father of Richard (father by his wife, Maria Overbury, of Thomas, John, Edward, and five daughters), Philippus, Thomas (who removed to the Netherlands about 1620), and numerous daughters; and William married Alice Roads and made his home in Bedfordshire, where he was the father of William, Thomas, Gideon, Jasper, and Elizabeth, of whom the son Gideon married Anne Daverell and was the father of Gideon, Thomas, William, Edmund, and six daughters.

Not without distinction in Great Britain and other parts of Europe, where the Fishers were, for the coat part, of the landed gentry and yeomanry, the family was well represented among the earliest settlers in colonial America.

The first of the name in America is believed to have been Thomas Fisher, who came from County Suffolk, England, to Cambridge, Mass., in 1630 and later removed to Dedham, in the same colony. By his wife Elizabeth he was the father of Samuel, Thomas, and Constance.

As early as 1637 Anthony Fisher, who is said to have been the son of another Anthony Fisher of County Suffolk, England, emigrated to Dedham, Mass. By his wife Mary (surname not known) he was the father of Anthony, Cornelius, Nathaniel, Daniel, Lydia, and John, and possibly of others. Some historians assert that there were two immigrants of this name in Dedham about the same time, but it seems probable that they have confused Anthony Sr. and his son of the same name. The immigrant Anthony was married in 1663 to a second wife, the Widow Isabel Breck, but had no further issue by her.

Joshua Fisher, brother of the before-mentioned immigrant Anthony, came to Dedham in 1639, having been preceded by his son Joshua, who accompanied his uncle Anthony in 1637. The elder Joshua was also the father by his wife, Anne Luson, of Elizabeth, Mary, and John.

Sometime before the year 1666 Daniel Fisher was living at Taunton, Mass., and it is thought probable that he was another nephew of the immigrant Anthony, probably the son of his brother Amos of Suffolk County, England. This Daniel married Hannah Hill and was probably the father by her of Hannah, John, Samuel, Eliezur, Mary, Mercy, Israel, and Nathaniel.

In 1682 one John Fisher, who may possibly have come from Lancashire, England, made his home in the Quaker colony

England, remained to Dedham, Mass., by his wife Mary (surname not known) he was the father of Anthony, Cornelius, Nathaniel, Daniel, Lydia, and John, and possibly of others. Some historians assert that there were two immigrants of this name in Dedham about the same time, but it seems probable that they have confused Anthony Sr. and his son of the same name. The immigrant Anthony was married in 1663 to a second wife, the Widow Isabel Brock, but had no further issue by her.

Joshua Fisher, brother of the before-mentioned immigrant Anthony, came to Dedham in 1639, having been preceded by his son Joshua, who accompanied his uncle Anthony in 1637. The elder Joshua was also the father by his wife, Anne Lawson, of Elizabeth, Mary, and John.

Sometime before the year 1686 Daniel Fisher was living at Taunton, Mass., and it is thought probable that he was another nephew of the immigrant Anthony, probably the son of his brother Amos of Suffolk County, England. This Daniel married Hannah Hill and was probably the father by her of Hannah, John, Samuel, Ebenezer, Mary, Mercy, Israel, and Nathaniel.

In 1662 one John Fisher, who may possibly have come from Lancashire, England, made his home in the Quaker colony of Pennsylvania. By his wife Margaret he was the father of Thomas, John, James, Ann, Alice, and Sarah.

Others of the Fishers who made their homes in America in the seventeenth century but left few records of their immediate families or descendants were Jonathan of Elizabeth City County, Va., in 1636; Thomas of Upper New Norfolk County, Va., in 1638; Richard of the Isle of Wight County, Va., in 1639; Edward of Portsmouth, R.I., about 1639, who was the father by his wife, Judith, of Ruth, Hannah, and Mary, and possibly of others as well; Edward of Virginia in 1642; John of Upper Norfolk County, Va., in 1643; William of Northampton County, Va., and Robert of Gloucester County, Va., in 1655; George of New Kent County, Va., in 1656; Stephen of Billerica, Mass., who died in 1682; William of Marshfield prior to 1684; and Oliver of Wrentham, Mass., before 1689.

In 1703 Hendrick Fisher came with his father (name unknown) from the German Palatinate to Bound Brook, N.J. He later made his home at Somerville, N.J., and was the father by his wife, Elizabeth, of Volkert, Maria, Neeltie, Abraham, Margaret, Hendrick, and Jeremias.

Peter Fisher came from Germany to New Jersey before 1725 and was the father in Hunterdon County by his wife, Maria, of Anthony, John Wilhelm, Elisabeth, Christopher, of Pennsylvania. By his wife Margaret he was the father of Thomas, John, James, Ann, Alice, and Sarah.

Others of the Fishers who made their homes in America in the seventeenth century but left few records of their immediate families or descendants were Jonathan of Kitsabewh City County, Va., in 1636; Thomas of Upper New Norfolk County, Va., in 1650; Richard of the Isle of Wight County, Va., in 1650; Edward of Portsmouth, R.I., about 1630, who was the father by his wife, Judith, of Ruth, Hannah, and Mary, and possibly of others as well; Edward of Virginia in 1649; John of Upper Norfolk County, Va., in 1643; William of Northampton County, Va., and Robert of Gloucester County, Va., in 1655; George of New Kent County, Va., in 1650; Stephen of Billerica, Mass., who died in 1682; William of Marblehead prior to 1694; and Oliver of Wrentham, Mass., before 1688.

In [illegible] Fisher came with his father (name unknown) from the German Palatinate to Round Brook, N.J. He later made his home at Conewago, N.Y., and was the father by his wife, Elizabeth, of Volkert, Maria, Hestie, Antjen, Margaret, Hendrick, and Jeremias.

Peter Fisher came from Germany to New Jersey before 1750 and was the father in Hunterdon County by his wife, Maria, of Anthony, John Frank, Elizabeth, Christopher,

John, Peter, Jacob, and possibly of others.

In 1726 Jacob Fisher came from Germany to Pennsylvania and settled in Upper Hanover County. By his wife Sophia Elizabeth he was the father of, probably among others, a son named Herman.

Samuel Fisher emigrated from Ireland to Francestown, N.H., in 1740. He was the father there of at least one son named James and probably of others.

In 1747 Joseph Fisher, who was born in Saxony in 1734, came to America and settled in New Jersey, whence he later removed to Catawissa, Pa. In 1764 he married Catharine Mineger, by whom he was the father of Catharine, Henry, Mary, Hannah, Elizabeth, John, Moses, David, Jacob, and Joseph.

One George or John Fisher came from Germany to New Jersey near the end of the eighteenth century and was the father of George, John, and Christian. It is possible, however, that he was the descendant of an earlier immigrant, possibly of Christian, who came over in 1733 or of another George, who emigrated in 1753.

Daniel Fisher, whose ancestry is not known, was living in Brunswick County, Va., in the latter eighteenth century and was the father of, possibly among others, a son named

John, Peter, Jacob, and possibly of others.

In 1752 Jacob Fisher came from Germany to Pennsylvania and settled in Upper Hanover County. By his wife Sophia Elizabeth he was the father of, probably among others, a son named Herman.

Samuel Fisher emigrated from Ireland to Francestown, N.H., in 1760. He was the father there of at least one son named James and probably of others.

In 1747 Joseph Fisher, who was born in Saxony in 1724, came to America and settled in New Jersey, whence he later removed to Gatewlsea, Pa. In 1764 he married Catherine Minegar, by whom he was the father of Catherine, Henry, Mary, Hannah, Elizabeth, John, Moses, David, Jacob, and Joseph.

One George or John Fisher came from Germany to New Jersey near the end of the eighteenth century and was the father of George, John, and Christian. It is possible, however, that he was the descendant of an earlier immigrant, possibly of Christian, who came over in 1753 or of another George, who emigrated in 1752.

Daniel Fisher, whose ancestry is not known, was living in Brunswick County, Va., in the latter eighteenth century and was the father of, possibly among others, a son named

George, who married Ann Ambler and left numerous issue.

Another George Fisher of Pendleton County, W.Va., in the latter eighteenth century married Elizabeth Conrad and had issue by her of Philip, John, Charles, and George.

The offspring of these and other branches of the family in America have scattered to practically every State of the Union and have contributed as much to the growth and development of the nation as their forbears did to its founding. The family in America has been characterized by courage, industry, energy, and intellectual ability, and in some lines has been displayed a notable artistic ability.

Among those of the name who fought as officers in the War of the Revolution were Lieutenant Hendrick, of New Jersey; Lieutenants Isaac and Jonathan, of Massachusetts; Captains Henry and Samuel, of Pennsylvania; Captain Joshua, of Massachusetts; Lieutenant Colonel John, of New York, and Colonel Frederick, of New York.

John, Thomas, Richard, Edward, Henry, James, George, Robert, Alexander, Samuel, Anthony, William, Peter, Joshua, and Joseph are some of the Christian names most favored by the family for its male progeny.

A few of the many members of the family who have distinguished themselves in America in more recent times are:

George, who married Ann Ambler and left numerous issue.

Another George Fisher of Pendleton County, W.Va., in the latter eighteenth century married Elizabeth Conrad and had issue by her of Philip, John, Charles, and George.

The family in America has been characterized by courage, industry, energy, and intellectual ability, and in some lines has been displayed a notable artistic ability.

Among those of the name who fought as officers in the War of the Revolution were Lieutenant Hendrick, of New Jersey; Lieutenants Isaac and Jonathan, of Massachusetts; Captains Henry and Samuel, of Pennsylvania; Captain Joshua, of Massachusetts; Lieutenant Colonel John, of New York, and Colonel Frederick, of New York.

John, Thomas, Richard, Edward, Henry, James, George, Robert, Alexander, Samuel, Anthony, William, Peter, Joshua, and Joseph are some of the christian names most favored by the family for its male progeny.

A few of the many members of the family who have distinguished themselves in America in more recent times are:

Alvan Fisher (1792-1863), of Massachusetts, artist.

George Jackson Fisher (1825-1893), of New York, noted physician.

George Park Fisher (1827-1909), of Massachusetts, educator.

Sydney George Fisher (1856-1927), of Pennsylvania, historian.

Albert Kenrick Fisher (b. 1856), of New York, biologist.

William Arms Fisher (b. 1861), of California, musician and composer.

Walter Lowrie Fisher (b. 1862), of West Virginia, public official.

Irving Fisher (b. 1867), of New York, political economist.

Harrison Fisher (b. 1877), of New York, artist.

One of the very ancient and well-known coats of arms of the British family of Fisher is that described as follows (Burke, General Armory, 1884):

Arms.--"Argent, on a chevron between three demi lions rampant gules as many plates."

Crest.--"A demi lion rampant gules, holding between the paws a laurel branch vert."

WHY YOU HAVE A FAMILY NAME AND WHAT IT MEANS

Primitive personal names doubtless originated soon after the invention of spoken language, in the dark ages long preceding recorded history. For thousands of years thereafter first or given names were the only designations that men and women bore; and at the dawn of historic times, when the world was less crowded than it is today and every man knew his neighbor, one title of address was sufficient. Only gradually, with the passing centuries and the increasing complexity of civilized society, did a need arise for more specific designations. While the roots of our system of family names may be traced back to early civilized times, actually the hereditary surname as we know it today dates from scarcely more than nine hundred years ago.

A surname is a name added to a baptismal or given name for the purposes of making it more specific and of indicating family relationship or descent. Classified according to origin, most surnames fall into four general groups: (1) those formed from the given name of the sire; (2) those arising from bodily or personal characteristics; (3) those derived from locality or place of residence; and (4) those derived from occupation. It is easier to understand the story of the development of our institution of surnames if these classifications are borne in mind.

As early as Biblical times certain distinguishing appellations were occasionally employed in addition to the given name, as, for instance, Joshua the son of Nun, Azariah the son of Nathan, Judas of Galilee, and Simon the Zealot. In ancient Greece a daughter was named after her father, as Chryseis, daughter of Chryses; and a son's name was often an enlarged form of his father's, as Hieronymus, son of Hiero. The Romans, with the rise of their civilization, met the need for hereditary designations by inventing a complex system whereby every patrician took several names. None of them, however, exactly corresponded to surnames as we know them, for the "clan name", although hereditary, was given also to slaves and other dependents. This system proved to be but a temporary innovation; the overthrow of the Western Empire by barbarian invaders brought about its end and a reversion to the primitive custom of a single name.

The ancient Scandinavians and for the most part the Germans had only individual names, and there were no family names, strictly speaking, among the Celts. But as family and tribal groups grew in size, individual names became inadequate and the need for supplementary designations began to be felt. Among the first employed were such terms as the Hardy, the Stern, the Dreadful-in-Battle; and the nations of northern Europe soon adopted the practice of adding the father's name to the son's, as Oscar son of Carnuth and Dermid son of Duthno.

True surnames, in the sense of hereditary appellations, date in England from about the year 1000. Largely they were introduced from Normandy, although there are records of Saxon surnames prior to the Norman Conquest. During the reign of Edward the Confessor (1042-1066) there were Saxon tenants in Suffolk bearing such names as Suert Magno, Stigand Soror, Siuward Rufus, and Leuric Hobbesune (Hobson); and the Domesday record of 1085-1086, which exhibits some curious combinations of Saxon forenames with Norman family names, shows surnames in still more general use. By the end of the twelfth century hereditary names had become common in England. But even by 1465 they were not universal. During the reign of Edward V a law was passed to compel certain Irish outlaws to adopt surnames: "They shall take unto them a Surname, either of some Town, or some Colour, as Blacke or Brown, or some Art or Science, as Smyth or Carpenter, or some Office, as Cooke or Butler." And as late as the beginning of the nineteenth century a similar decree compelled Jews in Germany and Austria to add a German surname to the single names that they had previously used.

As stated above, family names fall into four general classes according to their origin. One of these classes comprises surnames derived from the given name of the father. Such names were formed by adding a prefix or suffix denoting either "son of" or a diminutive. English names terminating in son (or the contraction s), ing, and kin are of this type, as are also the innumerable names prefixed with the Gaelic Mac, the Norman Fitz, the Irish O, and the Welsh ap. Thus the sons of John became Johnsons; the sons of William, Williamsons or Wilsons; the sons of Richard, Richardsons or Richardses; the sons of Neill, MacNeills; the sons of Herbert, FitzHerberts; the sons of Reilly, O'Reillys; and the sons of Thomas, ap Thomases (ap has been dropped from many names of which it was formerly a part). There are also German, Netherlandish, Scandinavian, and other European surnames of similar formation, such as the Scandinavian names ending in sen.

Another class of surnames, those arising from some bodily or personal characteristic of their first bearer, apparently grew out of what were in the first instance nicknames. Thus Peter the strong became Peter Strong, Roger of small stature became Roger Little or Roger Small, and black-haired William or blond Alfred became William Black or Alfred White. A few examples of names of this type are Long, Short, Hardy, Wise, Good, Gladman, Lover, and Youngman.

A third class of family names, and perhaps the largest of all, is that comprising local surnames--names derived from and originally designating the place of residence of the bearer. Such names were employed in France at an early date and were introduced into England by the Normans, many of whom were known by the titles of their estates. The surnames adopted by the nobility were chiefly of this type, being used with the particles de, de la, or del (meaning "of" or "of the"). The Saxon equivalent was the word atte ("at the"), found in such names as John atte Brook, Edmund atte Lane, Godwin atte Brigg, and William atte Bourne. A vestige of this usage survives in the names Atwell, Atwood, and Atwater; in other cases the Norman de was substituted; and in still others, such as Wood, Briggs, and Lane, the particle was dropped. The surnames of some of the Pilgrim Fathers illustrate place designations. Winthrop, for instance, means "of the friendly village"; Endicott, "an end cottage"; and Bradford, "a broad for". The suffixes "ford", "ham", "ley", and "ton", denoting locality, are of frequent occurrence in such English names as Ashford, Bingham, Burley, and Norton.

Commencing about the time of Edward the Confessor a fourth class of surnames arose--names derived from occupation. The earliest of these seem to have been official names, such as Bishop, Mayor, Alderman, Reeve, Sheriff, Chamberlain, Chancellor, Chaplain, Deacon, Latimer (interpreter), Marshall, Sumner (summoner), and Parker (parkkeeper). Trade and craft names, although of the same general type, were slightly later development. Currier was a dresser of skins, Webster a weaver, Wainwright a wagonbuilder, and Baxter a baker. Such names as Smith, Taylor, Barber, Shepherd, Carter, Mason, and Miller are self-explanatory.

Some surnames of today which seem to defy classification or explanation are corruptions of ancient forms that have become disguised almost beyond recognition. For instance, Troublefield was originally Tuberville, Wrinch was Renshaw, Diggles was Douglas, Sinnocks and Snooks were Sevenoaks, Barrowcliff and Berrycloth were Barraclough, and Strawbridge was Stourbridge. Such corruptions of family names, resulting from ignorance of spelling, variations in pronunciation, or merely from the preference of the bearer, tend to baffle both the genalogist and the etymologist. Shakespeare's name is found in some twenty-seven different forms, and the majority of English and Anglo-American surnames have, in their history, appeared in four to a dozen or more variant spellings.

In the United States a greater variety of family names exists than anywhere else in the world. Surnames of every race and nation are represented. While a substantial number are of English, Scotch, Irish, Welsh, and western European origin, brought to this country by scions of families that had borne these names for generations prior to emigration, many others have come from central and southern Europe and the Slavic countries, where the use of surnames is generally a more recently established practice. Some families had no fixed surname until after their arrival in America; and in other cases emigrants from continental Europe or their descendants have translated or otherwise modified their names. These factors contribute to the difficulties encountered by students of etymology and family history.

Those Americans who possess old and honored names--who trace their surnames back to sturdy immigrant ancestors, or beyond, across the seas and into the mists of antiquity--may be rightfully proud of their heritage. While the name, in its origin, may seem ingenious, humble, surprising, or matter-of-fact, its significance today lies not in a literal interpretation of its initial meaning but in the many things that have happened to it since it first came into use. In the beginning it was only a label to distinguish one John from his neighbor John who lived across the field. But soon it established itself as part of the bearer's individuality; and as it passed to his children, his children's children, and their children, it became the symbol not of one man but of a family and all that that family stood for. Handed down from generation to generation, the surname grew inseparably associated with the achievement, the tradition, and the prestige of the family. Like the coat of arms--that vivid symbolization of the name which warrior ancestors bore in battle--the name itself has become a badge of family honor. It has become the "good name" to be proud of and to protect as one's most treasured possession.

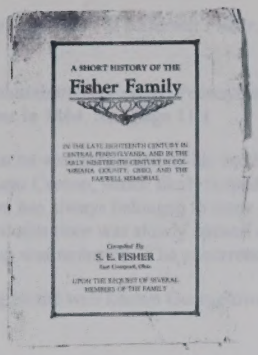
HISTORY



John FISHER is the earliest Fisher of our line whom we have any written record. Tradition says he emigrated from Saxony, Germany.

He obtained a deed from the commonwealth of Pennsylvania for three hundred and twenty acres of land on the Susquehanna River in 1769. (Ref. a map on the wall of the courthouse at Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, showing the earliest settlers of Union County.) Union County was originally a part of Northumberland County. It was formed in 1820.

The earliest records of the Fisher family are in the courthouse at Sunbury Northumberland County, Pa

The Town of West Milton is partly built on this three hundred and twenty acre tract.

Next we learn of John Fisher being located in White Deer Township, Buffalo Valley, in 1778. John Fisher's children were Henry, Paul, John, Michael and George, and also three daughters whose names are not given. However, it is stated that they married Thomas Perry, Jacob Wirtz and Philip Haines.

"John Fisher died in 1794 and is buried in the corner of the field above Esq. John Datisman's store, where the valley road strikes the river." From the Annals of Buffalo Valley of John Blair Linn.> (See page 293.)

John Fisher's two older sons, Henry and Paul, were Revolutionary soldiers.

Henry Fisher's war record from data at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, viz. Private in Col. Samuel Miles' Rifle Regiment, in Captain Henry Christ's Company, 2nd Battalion, served to the end of the war and died at Calcutta, Ohio, May 1st, 1826.

According to tradition Henry Fisher was a mighty man of valor. He took part in many friendly fights as the champion of his regiment and later he represented his sections in personal combats with champions from other sections of the newly settled Ohio and western Pennsylvania In these personal contests of strength and endurance tradition says that Henry was never defeated.

On the eve of the battle of Brandywine, Henry, representing his regiment, had a fight with a man by the name of Shearer, the champion of another regiment. Henry won the fight.

In the battle the next day the colonists were compelled to yield ground. A Nan was noticed by the wayside badly wounded and piteously begging for help. Henry Fisher went to his assistance and at once recognized his antagonist of the evening before. He picked him up and carried him on his shoulders for more than a mile, keeping up with the regiment. He was left in a place of safety where he received attention. Shearer to show his appreciation gave Henry his pocket book, his only possession. This blood stained pocket book was the means in after)'ears of securing a pension for Henry.

Our ancestor, Paul Fisher's Revolutionary record, vis, private in a company commanded by Peter Groves, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania, militia, date of enlistment, April 16th. 1871. (See page 683, Vol. 8, Pennsylvania Archives, 5th Series.).

The following is a Revolutionary war story from the "Annals of Buffalo Valley."

Paul Fisher of Slier tells me that at the time Baahor was killed his grandfather, John Fisher, lived at Esq. Datisman's.. The Indians burned Peter Swartz's house and killed a man named Ayers near White Deer Creek.

His grandfather and two sisters concealed themselves in the straw in their barn and expected every minute to be burned, but the Indians went into Hoffman's house just above and carried out a good many articles, and among the rest a clock. They seated themselves to examine the clock when Aaron Noncross and John Fisher, Jr.1 and others who had gathered hallowed and startled the Indians who left

HISTORY

John FISHER is the earliest Fisher of our line whom we have any written record. Tradition says he emigrated from Saxony, Germany.

He obtained a deed from the commonwealth of Pennsylvania for three hundred and twenty acres of land on the Susquehanna River in 1799. (Ref. a map on the wall of the courthouse at Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, showing the earliest settlers of Union County.) Union County was originally a part of Northumberland County. It was formed in 1820.

The earliest records of the Fisher family are in the courthouse at Sunbury, Northumberland County, Pa

The Town of West Milton is partly built on this three hundred and twenty acre tract.

Next we learn of John Fisher being located in White Deer Township, Buffalo Valley, in 1778. John Fisher's children were Henry, Paul, John, Michael and George, and also three daughters whose names are not given. However, it is stated that they married Thomas Perry, Jacob Wirtz and Philip Hames.

"John Fisher died in 1791 and is buried in the corner of the field above Esq. John Dieteman's store, where the valley road enters the river." From the Annals of Buffalo Valley of John Blair Linn.> (See page 291.)

John Fisher's two older sons, Henry and Paul, were Revolutionary soldiers.

Henry Fisher's war record (from data at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, via, Private in Col. Samuel Miles' Rifle Regiment, in Captain Henry Christ's Company, 2nd Battalion, served to the end of the war and died at Canton, Ohio, May 1st, 1826.

their plunder. This old clock is still in the possession of Jacob Hoffman, living up near the Muncy Hills Tradition says that Paul was eighteen years old when the war began, and that he ran off to enlist in the war. It is also related that he picked up an Indian scalping awl on the scene of an Indian massacre.

This relic of a pioneer age was for many years in the possession of Jefferson Fisher, now deceased, of Crafton. Pennsylvania, near Pittsburgh.

Paul Fisher emigrated from the Buffalo Valley, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania, and located at Calcutta' Ohio, in 1810. (Ref. "The Yankee Conscript," written by George A. Fisher in 1864. See' page 11.)

It was Paul's intention to go as far west as Canton but he was persuaded by his brother Henry, who had preceded him to Ohio, to stop at Calcutta. Also there had been an Indian outbreak near Canton, which likely helped to decide the matter. The first cabin was built by a spring in the meadow near Calcutta, Ohio. This farm has always belonged to some members of the family. It has been related that soon after Paul Fisher settled at Calcutta, one night the out side door was slowly opened and an Indian face looked in. After carefully surveying the room the door closed again and nothing was molested. The occurrence has always remained a mystery.*

For a number of years Paul Fisher kept tavern, being on the well known Georgetown Road over which the stage coach made regular trips, and the tide of emigration , flowed westward.

Paul Fisher was married to Catherine Kister. They had eleven children: Catherine, Paul, John, Michael, Mary Peter, Elizabeth, Samuel, Henry, George and Susan. Of this number Michael, Peter and Henry married sisters by the name of Dawson. Three of the above number, including our grandfather, John Fisher, had families of eleven children.

All of the children, except George and Susan, were born before coming to Ohio.
Paul Fisher died at Calc Calcutta in 1828. It seems no monument had been erected to his memory, at least none could be located.

At the Centennial Reunion of the Fisher family, held at Long's Run Church, August 27th, 1914, it was decided to erect a suitable monument to his memory. The heirs of John Fisher donated the obelisk stone that stood on his lot in Spring Grove Cemetery.

John Fisher was born March 15th, 1798 He died April 10th, 1870; His wife, Elizabeth Hill, was born January 30th and died April 27th, 1875. Their remains were transferred to Riverview Cemetery by Mrs. M. 0. Fisher where a suitable monument erected by her marks their last resting place.

John Fisher and Elizabeth Hill were married October 28th, 1828, in the Roger Hill home, which is still standing at this date (1928) on East Fourth Street, East Liverpool; Ohio opposite the High School.

For a period of some five or six years they lived on the Paul Fisher farm at Calcutta. Their oldest children, Susan and Levi, were born there.

It is related that during this period John Fisher took his team to Pittsburgh, where he secured work hauling stone for one of the river bridges. On one occasion he had a very narrow escape from serious injury or death as a Beginning at Sunbury he interviewed quite a number of people by the name of Fisher. The name being very common in that section, but they all belonged to other lines. Most of them were of Bavarian ancestry.

One notable case was Mrs. Amellia Fisher, ninety-five years old. She passed the century mark as her picture and hilstoryu were in the daily press later.

Dear Al,

It was so nice to finally find you and visit with you recently about our Fisher family. I have been researching my Grandmother Lestie's Fisher family for a number of years. I only wish I could have found you three boys while she was alive. She always wondered what had happened to you. Lestie and Cyus Everett were sister and brother. The family here in OK always called him Everett.

I have enclosed a copy of a Relationship Chart to show you how we are related, we are second cousins. There are also two Ancestor Charts to show the generations from you to Sebastian Jacob Fisher, your 6th great grandfather.

Also enclosed are 17 pages of our family line from Sebastian to you. You will see there are some missing names as you read through the pages. I deleted all the families who would not be in your direct line of descent and have highlighted all those who are in your line. This is a copy of my research that I keep in my computer program.

I would like to add you mother's information; her full name, birth and death dates and marriage date to your Dad and obituary, also a picture if you have one. I was told they were divorced? Hope you will share the story with me. I am enclosing a copy of information about me and my husband and hope you will share your personal information, where you were born, what you have done during your life and Ella's information. The information will stay only in my database and will not be published in book or on the Internet.

When we talked I mentioned that I had corresponded with Eulalia Palmer Fisher, I was wrong, it was Teresa Palmer who was married to Winifred, Eulalia's brother. They are the lovely people who sent me the Memorial books and details. That was in 1993. See the letter enclosed. I am sure that they have both passed on by now. The information Teresa gave me is yours, I have made copies of the items that I wished to retain. In my note of Teresa's phone call, letters of correspondence between Ralph and others was mentioned, no letters were received, much to my dismay.

You are getting some pictures, I have quite a few more, you might like the newspaper article about Grandpa Tom making tobacco plugs for your father! Several anniversary pix and articles of Grandpa Tom and Grandma Suzanna, they were married 69 years! If you are interested, please let me know. Grandpa Tom was one of the Fishers who wrote out our family genealogy along with some of his cousins.

I hope you will know that you are family and I am very happy to know where you are and share the family information with you. If you have questions, please ask. You are part of my family. I look forward to hearing from you.

Your Oklahoma cousin,

Dear Al,

It was so nice to finally find you and visit with you recently about our Fisher family. I have been researching my Grandmother Lottie's Fisher family for a number of years. I only wish I could have found you three boys while she was alive. She always wondered what had happened to you. Lottie and Cyrus Everett were sister and brother. Descendants of Sebastian Jacob Fischer

Generation No. 1

1. SEBASTIAN JACOB[1] FISCHER was born 1685 in Province of Hanover, Germany, and died 1745 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania (Now Berks County, PA). He married BARBARA SUSANNA (WIFE OF SEBASTIAN FISCHER) Abt. 1700 in Palatinate, Germany. She was born 1685 in Palatine Province, Germany, and died 1750 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania (Now Berks County, PA). Lancaster County was Berks County until 1752.

Biographical Data About The Palatines from Tulpehocken by Charles Adam Fisher in the Historical Review of Berks County, Volume II, Number 4, July 1937, pages 115-117,

Sebastian Fischer (Fisher) came to the Tulpehocken region before May 13, 1723. He and wife, Susanna, and their two children, sailed for London, England, from Rotterdam, Holland, July 28, 1709. He and hundreds of other Palatine heads of families left England during the early part of April 1709, and arrived at New York Harbor on June 13 or 14.

During the fall of that year, Sebastian, his wife and one child, were receiving subsistence from Governor Hunter of New York. This indicates that one of the two children, reported earlier, died. In 1712, two adults and a child were still receiving rations.

In 1711 Sebastian was a Private in Captain Hartman Winedecker's Company of Palatine Volunteers in the Expedition against Canada in Queen Anne's War.

Prior to 1717, Sebastian, wife and three children, lived at Gerlachsdorf in the Schoharie Valley of New York. This village no longer exists, but lay about two miles south of the present village of Central Bridge, and about two miles north of the present Old Fort Museum, which is located on or near the former village of Foxtown.

In 1711, Sebastian lived at Annsburg, one of the four Palatine villages (or camps) on the Livingston Manor, located on the east side of the Hudson River, some fifty or sixty miles southeast of the village of Gerlachsdorf. The story has often been told how the first Palatines who came to Pennsylvania, cut a road through the forest from the Schoharie Valley to the Susquehanna Valley, built boats and rafts, floated their goods down the Susquehanna to the mouth of the Swatara Creek, ascended that creek, crossed the watershed into the Tulpehocken Valley, some seventeen miles northwest of Reading, where they settled in the spring of 1723.

The known children of Sebastian and his wife were: Lawrence [Ludwig] probably born in Germany; Peter born Oct 4, 1714, according to the Second Record Book of the Schoharie Lutheran Church, Schoharie County, NY located some twelve miles from Berne, Albany County, where it is said the Fishers lived for a time; John Jacob born about 1720; and Ann Elizabeth born about 1722. George Ulrich may also have been a son.

Sebastian's name was on the first tax list compiled for the Tulpehocken section on January 10, 1725; it also appears on petitions in the years 1725 and 1727. Because he seems to prefer doing things out of the ordinary, he usually signed his name in some form of the Latin, giving rise to the belief that he may have had schooling beyond the average for that time and place. He was a Lutheran in 1727, or before, assisted in the founding of the Ried's Lutheran Church, then located some two miles east of the present town of Stouchsburg, PA. Later, because of the influx of the Moravian influence in that church, he and about 160 other members of it, withdrew from Ried's Church, and formed the Christ (Tulpehocken) Lutheran Church in 1743. This church is located about a mile southwest of Stouchsburg. Sebastian's name was at the head of the list of the signers of the constitution of the new church. He, Christian Lauer, and George Unruh, each gave five acres from their farms for cemetery and church purposes.

Tradition says that Peter, son of Sebastian, married Anna Dorthea Ball, in Albany or Schoharie County, NY, January 4, 1750.

In 1711 Sebastian was a Private in Captain Hartman Winedecker's Company of Palatine Volunteers in the Expedition against Canada in Queen Anne's War.

Prior to 1717, Sebastian, wife and three children, lived at Gerhardsdorf in the Schoharie Valley of New York. This village no longer exists, but lay about two miles south of the present village of Central Bridge, and about two miles north of the present Old Fort Museum, which is located on or near the former village of Foxtown.

In 1711, Sebastian lived at Annsburg, one of the four Palatine villages (or camps) on the Livingston Manor, located on the east side of the Hudson River, some fifty or sixty miles southeast of the village of Gerhardsdorf. Tradition says that Peter, son of Sebastian, married Anna Dorthea Ball, in Albany or Schoharie County, NY, January 4, 1750.

John Jacob married Mary Elizabeth, daughter of John Frederick, in what is now Berks County, PA, December 9, 1743.

Ann Elizabeth married John Anspach (probably a son of Baltzar Anspach) in Berks County in 1744.

Sebastian and Lawrence [Ludwig] both owned land in what is today Marion (Merion] Township, Berks County. John Jacob owned land and died in what was then Tulpehocken Township, Berks County, in 1803.

The compiler has never been able to find a record of the death of Sebastian, or his son, Lawrence [Ludwig], in Pennsylvania, and believes that Sebastian and his sons Lawrence [Ludwig] and Peter may have returned to New York about the year 1745.

This Sebastian Fisher was heir to a vast estate on which the more modern part of Hanover has since been built. His family was important enough in political affairs for him to incur the displeasure of those in power with whom he had disagreed politically. Trumped up charges of poaching against him forced him to lose his titles and estates and to leave his homeland with only what he could carry with him. Sebastian and Susannah left Rotterdam, Holland on July 28, 1708 for England...he, Susannah, and two children. After spending a miserable year in England and losing one of his children, they set sail for America arriving in New York on June 13th or 14th of 1709 with a group of families that subsequently settled in the Schoharrie Valley at Gerlachsdorf (previously New Cassell). He fought with the English in the Queen Ann's Wars. Not being able to get title to their holdings, 15 families in 1723 went over into Pennsylvania and settled in Tulpehecken Valley where they prospered and were soon joined by others from Schoharrie and from Germany. Here, near Stochsburg, Reed's Church was established in 1727 and later the Tulpehocken Lutheran Church a few miles away. 1706 and married to Barbara Blankenbaker.

Sebastian Fischer or Fisher, was among the 12,000 or more Germans who fled from Catholic tortures in the German Palatinate to England. By the Palatinate, is meant a state of the old German Empire lying along the River Rhine. They left their native land in 1709, for the safer abiding place of England, even though it was only temporary. On June 14, 1710, 4,000 of these Germans landed in New York harbor, and the following autumn Sebastian Fischer was among the 1,400 of these who went to live in Livingston Manor, near New York City. But in 1712 or 1713, because of inability to get on well with earlier inhabitants of the manor, he was among those Germans, 150 families in all, who next moved to thee Schoharie Valley, about 60 miles northwest. Here, about 1720, his son John Jacob Fisher, was born. Again, in 1723, this time because of inability to gain clear land titles, Sebastian Fischer was one of thirty-three heads of families who cut a path through the forest to the Susquehanna River. Then they floated down to the Swatara Creek, ascended this creek, and settled in the Tulpehocken Valley, about 17 miles from the present city of Reading, and 3 miles from Womelsdorf, Pennsylvania. In 1723, Sebastian Fischer's name appeared on a petition for a road near Stouchsburg, addressed to the court at Philadelphia, as neither Lancaster nor Berks counties were marked off at this time; the first not until 1729 and the second not until 1752...From 1727 to 1743, Sebastian Fischer was an active supporter of pioneer Lutheran Churches of the vicinity. In 1743, he was the first of 165 persons to sign the membership roll of Christ Lutheran Church, near Stouchsburg, and his son, John Jacob, was also on this roll." - page 1 and 2 of The Genealogy of Henry W. Generation No. 2

3. WILLIAM[2] FISCHER (SEBASTIAN JACOB[1]) was born 11 April 1709 in Palatine Province, Langenselbohl, Bonnenburg Co., Germany, and died 23 October 1771 in Berks County, Pennsylvania. He married ELISABETH GERTRAUT HAIN Abt. 1730 in Berks County, Pennsylvania. She was born 11 April 1711 in Livingston Manor, Schoharrie County, New York, and died 04 January 1768 in Heidelberg Township, Berks, Pennsylvania.

William was born in Langenselbohl, near Hanau in Hesse Cassel, according to a document in the nature of a passport given to him by the Chancellor of the Right Hon. Count and Lord Sir Wolfgang Ernstin, Count of Isenberg and Biedingen, an English translation of which was published on page 24 of the History of Hain's Church in 1916. He arrived in Philadelphia on August 17, 1733, on the ship Samuel of London, Hugh Percy, master, from Rotterdam, with a total of 291 Palatines on board. Probably late in the year of his arrival he married Elizabeth Gertrude Hain. He became the owner of about one thousand acres of land in what are today Lower Heidelberg and Spring townships, Berks County. In 1752 and 1760 he was an elder of Hain's Church, and both William and Elizabeth Gertrude are buried close to the southwest corner of the church near the graves of her parents.

The eight sons of Wilhelm Fischer all served in the Continental Army during the Revolution. As can be expected, some served various enlistments at various times, according to the emergency; but it is worthy to note that at one time six of these sons served in the same company, as evidenced by a return of Colonel Joseph Hiester on May 31, 1781, in which appear the names of John, Henry, Fridrich, Georg, Peter, and Michael Fisher,(Reference 366) while Frantz Fisher is noted in a regiment of the Continental Line and Philip Fisher in the Germen Regiment. The Revolutionary War tablet on the wall of Hain's Church mentions Frederic, Michael, Peter Sr., Peter Jr., and Philip Fisher. 366. "Pennsylvania Archive," 5th Series, volume V, page 211.

Elizabeth Gertrude Hain, daughter of George and Victoria Hain, was born in 1711, probably at Livingston Manor, NY, as the name of her father appears on the list of the Palatines who were there in 1710-11, under indenture to Queen Anne, engaged in producing naval stores in order to repay the expenses of their transportation from England. She married William Fisher, the progenitor of the Fisher family, which has been identified with Hain's Church and its neighboring communities from pioneer days. (Reference 334).

Co., Germany; d. 23 October 1771, Berks County, Pennsylvania.

OBITUARY: FERNE E. FISHER

Ferne E. Fisher, 96, of Battle Lake died Friday, September 2, in the Battle Lake Care Center in Battle Lake. Services were Tuesday, September 6 at the Christian & Missionary Alliance Church in Battle Lake with Pastor David Baynes officiating. Music was provided by Karen Dreyer as organist and Eunice Swedberg, pianist. Soloist George Hendrickson sang, "The Love of God" and "The Lord's Prayer" and Nellie Hamilton, soloist, sang "What A Friend We Have in Jesus". Pallbearers were Gerold Hamilton, Robert Swedberg, Vern Charest, LaVerne Newton, Oliver Jacobson, and Clarence Whiting. Burial was in Lakewood Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers were Lloyd West, George Hendrickson, and Bud Abbott. Ferne E. Fisher was born and grew up in Willmar, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Baxter McNees. She attended grade school, high school, and business college in Willmar. She worked as a bookkeeper until 1917. May 6, 1917, she married Austin A. Fisher in Oklahoma. They lived at Wellington, Kansas, until Austin retired in 1956 from the Santa Fe Railroad. In 1959, they moved to Battle Lake. Ferne has been a resident of the Battle Lake Care Center since March of 1986. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Austin in 1963, an infant child, and a sister, Ellen. Received this obituary from Gloria Ann Roush McDaniel. The obituary appeared in the Battle Lake Review newspaper, Battle Lake, Minnesota.

Gloria Ann stated that "The Dreyer's" were given everything. Perhaps they would have some information of where Dorothy Aileen Fisher, infant daughter, would be buried.

Child of AUSTIN FISHER and FERNE MCNEES is:

i. DOROTHY AILEEN[8] FISHER, b. 18 April 1918; d. 18 April 1918.
Where is she buried? Possibly Willmar, but could be Battle Lake, MN

OBITUARY: FERNE E. FISHER

Ferne E. Fisher, 96, of Battle Lake died Friday, September 2, in the Battle Lake Care Center in Battle Lake. Services were Tuesday, September 6 at the Christian & Missionary Alliance Church in Battle Lake with Pastor David Baynes officiating. Music was provided by Karen Dreyer as organist and Eunice Swedberg, pianist. Soloist George Hendrickson sang, "The Love of God" and "The Lord's Prayer" and Nellie Hamilton, soloist, sang "What A Friend We Have in Jesus". Pallbearers were Gerald Hamilton, Robert Swedberg, Vern Chaver, LaVerne Newton, Oliver Jacobson, and Clarence Whiting. Burial was in Lakewood Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers were Lloyd West, George Hendrickson, and Bud Abbott. Ferne E. Fisher was born and grew up in Willmar, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Baxter McNess. She attended grade school, high school, and business college in Willmar. She worked as a bookkeeper until 1917. May 6, 1917, she married Austin A. Fisher in Oklahoma. They lived at Wellington, Kansas, until Austin retired in 1956 from the Santa Fe Railroad. In 1959, they moved to Battle Lake. Ferne has been a resident of the Battle Lake Care Center since March of 1986. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Austin in 1963, an infant child, and a sister, Ellen. Received this obituary from Gloria Ann Roush McDaniel. The obituary appeared in the Battle Lake Review newspaper, Battle Lake, Minnesota.

Gloria Ann stated that "The Dreyers" were given everything. Perhaps they would have some information of where Dorothy Aileen Fisher, infant daughter, would be buried

Child of AUSTIN FISHER and FERNE MCNESS is:
i. DOROTHY AILEEN[7] FISHER, b. 18 April 1918; d. 18 April 1918.
Where is she buried? Possibly Willmar, but could be Battle Lake, MN

57. LESTIE ARA[7] FISHER (JAMES THOMAS[6], EDGAR[5], ADAM[4], MICHAEL PEAR[3] FISHER, WILLIAM[2], SEBASTIAN JACOB[1]) was born 19 May 1895 in Rural Mason County, West Virginia, and died 26 March 1979 in Blackwell, Kay, Oklahoma (Source: Social Security Death Index). She married ERNEST RAYMOND WALCHER 22 August 1914 in Anthony, Harper, Kansas, son of CHARLES WALCHER and JENNIE PADDOCK. He was born 29 June 1892 in Wellington, Sumner, Kansas, and died 05 September 1955 in Blackwell, Kay, Oklahoma.

BARBARA AND JACK FULTON – BARTLESVILLE, OKLAHOMA

Barbara lived in Blackwell, Oklahoma most of her life with the exception of approximately a year when the family moved to Chicago, IL to live with the paternal grandparents, while her father was in the Navy at Great Lakes Station near Chicago. She graduated from Blackwell High School where she participated in band and choir, and served as reporter for the two classes and as Student Body President during her senior year. She attended Northern Oklahoma Junior College at Tonkawa, prior to marrying Jack Fulton. During the time her children were growing, she was a dealer and manager for Tupperware Home Parties (27 years). She also worked as a Washington County court clerk deputy, as administrative assistant and clerk within the Phillips Petroleum companies, retiring in August 1998. She has maintained a small business, Family History Focus, helping others with their genealogy and computer problems. For several years, she taught genealogy classes at the local technology center. She has served as Chairman for the historic White Rose Cemetery in Bartlesville and is an active member of the local DAR, serving for eight years as Registrar. Other interests include the writing of a family history book, genealogy and scrapbooking, the computer, and her grandchildren.

Jack was born and raised in Blackwell, Oklahoma. He attended Blackwell schools and graduated from Blackwell High School in 1951. During high school he played basketball and was a member of the high school Band, playing the tuba and serving as President in his senior year. After high school graduation, he worked at the Blackwell Acme Foundry to make pocket and dating money. He attended Oklahoma A&M College, graduating in the spring of 1954 with a certificate in drafting. He married Barbara Walcher his last year in college; and immediately after graduation, he went to work for Phillips Petroleum Company in Bartlesville, Oklahoma as a draftsman. During the children's early years, Jack was a baseball coach for his son's Little League teams, a Scoutmaster for the Presbyterian Church, and an avid bowler and President in several Phillips' Bowling Leagues. Jack has always been a wonderful handyman, painter, "Mister Fit-it", loves challenges, enjoys photography and working with wood. In 1991, he states "he was retired" as a mechanical designer from Phillips in their downsizing after 38 years of service. His interests are reading, the computer, genealogy, the house, yard, garden, grandchildren and his new Sheltie dog Sandi. For several years in the spring and fall, he taught a class, "Genealogy on the Internet" at the local technology center. His most recent interests have been "pen turning" that is making writing pens from wood and acrylic and his new camera.

RECORD SEARCHES

REQUIRED INFORMATION
Certain information is required in order for to us to be able to process your request in an expedient manner and to prevent unnecessary delays. Incorrect information will delay the search and may result in your document not being located. You can be assured that every attempt will be made to locate the record you have requested. The minimum facts required include: 1) the full name of the decedent at the time of death, 2) the date of death, and 3) the place of death.

OPTIONAL INFORMATION
Any additional information you may have can assist us in our search such as nicknames, a husband's name of a married female, whether the deceased was an infant, or the name of the funeral director in charge of the decedent. You can be assured that every attempt is made to locate the record you have requested.

HOW RECORDS ARE SEARCHED
When an application is submitted (Example: William Thomas Public-March 25, 1932-Tulsa County), we will search for the proper name, as well as other variations of the name (Example: Will, W.T. Bill, Billy, Willy). We also conduct a generalized search over a span of years (Example: 1930-1940) as well as in surrounding counties (Example: Washington, Muskogee, Wagoner etc.) Please be aware that these generalized searches may not result in a record being found if the name is common. In that case, more specific information will be required.

AVAILABLE RECORDS
Oklahoma began filing death records in October of 1908, however filing did not become mandatory until 1917. Prior to 1940 filing continued to be somewhat sporadic, which may prove problematic for families who may need proof of death for the settlement of death claims or to obtain entitled benefits.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR FILING DEATH CERTIFICATES
It is the responsibility of the funeral director in charge of the decedent at the time of death to properly obtain the information needed from an immediate family member, obtain the physician's signature and cause of death information, and then file the certificate in a timely manner.

QUESTIONS
If you have any questions, visit our official website http://www.health.ok.gov or call our office at (405) 271-4040.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Cy Fisher Dies At 80

CYRUS (Cy) Fisher, 80, Fergus Falls, Minn., died Tuesday at Fergus Falls. An employe of the Milwaukee Railroad, Mr. Fisher and his family lived in Aberdeen from 1916 to 1935.

Services will be held 10:30 a.m. Friday at the Huebl Chapel with the Rev. J. Harley Thompson of the Methodist Church officiating. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery.

Mr. Fisher was born Dec. 9, 1880, at West Columbia, W. Va., where he grew to manhood. He married Sarah Fowler at Middleport, Ohio, where they lived for some years. They resided in Wichita and Wellington, Kan., and Wilmer, Minn., before coming to Aberdeen.

In 1935 they moved to Detroit Lakes, Minn., where they lived until Mrs. Fisher's death in 1955. Because of ill health, Mr. Fisher was taken to the Fergus Falls hospital.

Survivors include two sons, Ralph, of Sioux Falls, and Neil, of Rapid City; one brother, Austin, of Battle Lake, Minn.; three sisters, Mrs. J. B. Sheets and Mrs. E. R. Walcher, both of Blackwell, Okla., and Mrs. Vertis Skalitsky, Palo Verde, Calif.; and three grandsons. Preceding him in death in addition to his wife was one daughter. The body will arrive in Aberdeen Friday morning

Mrs. Fisher, 70, Succumbs Here

Mrs. C. E. (Sally) Fisher, 70, resident of Becker county since 1935, died Saturday at St. Mary's hospital following an extended illness.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday morning at the West Funeral chapel. Rev. R. L. Simonson of Audubon officiated. Mrs. Duane Wething was soloist and she was accompanied by Mrs. B. F. Blomquist. Burial took place at Riverside cemetery in Aberdeen, S. D.

Mrs. Fisher was born in West Columbia, W. Va., July 20, 1884. During her life she lived at Middle Port, Ohio; Wichita and Wellington, Kans., and later in Aberdeen, S. D. In 1935 the Fisher family moved to Audubon where they farmed until 1949 when they came to Detroit Lakes. Mrs. Fisher lived at 502 Front St. E.

She was married to Mr. Fisher August 11, 1902, at West Columbia, W. Va. He survives along with two sons, Ralph, Sioux Falls, S. D., and Neil, Rapid City, S. D.; a brother, Harry Fowler, Marion, Ohio; and three sisters, Mrs. Cora Fogelsong and Mrs. Isa Johnson, Point Pleasant, W. Va., and Mrs. Anna Moore, Gary, W. Va.

Services Held For Mrs. Fisher

GRAVESIDE services for Mrs. Sarah C. Fisher, 70, Detroit Lakes, Minn., were conducted Wednesday afternoon at Riverside Cemetery here. The Rev. E. W. Nervig officiated.

Services were held Tuesday morning at Detroit Lakes. The wife of C. E. Fisher, she had been a resident of Detroit Lakes since 1949. She died Saturday following an illness of about four years.

She was born Sarah Fowler on July 20, 1884 at West Columbia, W. Va. On Aug. 11, 1902, she was married to C. E. Fisher at West Columbia. Several years later they moved to Middle Port, Ohio, and later lived for short periods at Wichita and Wellington, Kan.

In 1914 they moved to Willmar, Minn., and in 1917 came to Aberdeen. They resided in the Hub City until August of 1935 at which time they moved to their farm five miles south of Audubon, Minn. They continued living on the farm until the spring of 1949, moving to Detroit Lakes. Mrs. Fisher attended St. Peter's Lutheran Church of Audubon.

In addition to her husband survivors include two sons, Neil of Rapid City and Ralph of Sioux Falls; one brother, Harry Fowler of Marion, Ohio; three sisters, Mrs. Cora Fogelsong and Mrs. Isa Johnson, both of Point Pleasant, W. Va. and Mrs. Anna Moore of Gary, W. Va.; and three grandchildren.

Her parents and a daughter, Elizabeth Fisher-Swenson, preceded her in death.

Dear Barbara:

Enclosed is the death certificate that you requested.

I did check with our probate office, and they did not find any probate records on file for Cyrus Fisher.

I also checked with our historical society on land in Becker County under the name of Cyrus Fisher, and they did not come up with anything. In order to do a more thorough search, we would need more information as to the location of the property.

The name and address of the local newspaper is:

D.L. Printing
511 Washington Ave.
Detroit Lakes, MN 56501

The cost of a certified copy of a death certificate in Minnesota is $8.00. I am enclosing your refund of $2.00 in cash.

Sincerely,

DJ Deputy

I am the niece of Cyrus Everett (Evert) Fisher who died 2 Jan 1961. I wish a copy of his death certificate.

I would also like a copy of his probate record, if available.

I know he lived on a farm in the Audubon/Detroit Lakes area. Is there a land description?

Could you also furnish me with the name of the local newspaper as I am wanting a copy of his obituary.

I am enclosing a check for $10, please advise if this does not cover the cost.

Thank you for your promptness.

Friend Ralph:

We find we can make you a marker exactly like the one you have on the lot in Ruby Red Wausau granite at a cost of $55.00 plus our regular sales tax. On the other hand if you preferred sand sunk letters instead of the heavy raised letters you could do so since the marker goes on the other side of the lot. We would then be able to place the marker for a cost of $49.00.

Hoping this meets with your approval and looking forward to the necessary inscription. The other marker reads as follows: Elizabeth - 1903-1925. Thanks for calling on us when you were in Aberdeen.

Yours

Dear Mr. Fisher:

Thank you for the order for two markers for Father and Mother that will be placed on the Fisher-Sweenson lot here in Riverside cemetery.

I have talked to the sexton of the cemetery and he advised that we place these markers flush with the ground with an extention of cement around both these markers. This way you eliminate the $10.00 charge for each of the markers that the cemetery will charge for anything above the ground level. He also states within a year they will start placing all markers flush for mowing purposes.

I am returning the pink copy for your records filled in as to amount and payment that you made. This also is the guarantee you have on the markers along with the foundation work. Within a few days you will received an acknowledgement of this order please check over the spelling and dates for a double check before we start the work on the order.

We again thank you for the order and you will be informed when work is completed and billed for the amount due.

Mr. Ralph L. Fisher,

Dear sir:

In reply to your letter inquiring about your folks account I wish to inform you there is a balance of $125.02. Yesterday Mr. West called and I checked and could find no such an account, but this morning I happened to think that when an account has inactive for a number of years we place it in a inactive file, and there is where I found it. I called Mr. West and asked him to bring over a receipt for this amount showing it was paid on funeral expenses and we will use this as a charge to the account.

Regarding the matter of the State standing a portion of funeral expenses Mr. West stated he had taken this up with the Welfare Board and they refused to pay any of it. Whether there is another department of the State to appeal to I donot know.

Sorry I gave the wrong information to Mr. West yesterday as I imagine you are wondering what became of account.

Sure sorry to hear of the death of your dad as I considered him one of my good friends.

Sincerely yours,

Asst. cashier

Dear Mr. Ralph L. Fisher:

Received your letter this morning and checked with the State Welfare Dept. here, and they only will pay on funeral of old age, when buried here in State. and then it is $150.00 and authorization must be gotten from them, before funeral arrangements are made, Also you have to take what they offer for old age Casket, & service. You have no choice.

I also called Carl Lehne at the First Nat. Bank and he checked on your Dads acct. and there are no funds left in the acct there.

Yours truly,
D. A. West.

Sioux Falls S.D.
May15th.1955.

Dear Folks;

Just a few lines to acquaint you with the details of Mother's illness and passing.

Mother entered St.Mary's Hospital on March 23. We were called up there on April 17th.

Upon arriving we found she had rallied and when the nurse asked her if she knew who we were she nodded her head and spoke my name. However her Physician informed us that she would not recover. No medication could help her and the only consoling fact was that she suffered no pain at all.

In accordance with previously voiced wishes of theirs Neill and I arranged for her funeral at Detroit Lakes and burial at Aberdeen,S.D.

It was a hard blow to us even though we knew it was coming and it is going to be hard now to think of going up Home with Mom gone.

We are both fortunate in having our own families at our side at this time.

Dad took it very hard and frankly I am afraid it is going to aggravate his condition which at this time is not at all good.

Not being in much of a letter writing mood at this time and having no news except to mention it is very dry here at this time and for a while I had hopes of getting out of mowing but Eulalia has settled that situation by buying a lawn sprinkler.

Hoping this will answer any queries you may have I will close by saying I shall be very glad to hear from all of you andwill faithfully answer all letters.

With best regards to all, I am

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Dear Barbara:

I thought my wife, Teresa, had sent this material to you but I just run across it so I will get it in the mail. I'm sorry it hasn't been sent before.

I have been trying to get Albert Fiskers address but unable to do so. I did hear that he is married.

Yours truly

Teresa Palmer of the Heart O'Lakes Genealogical Society-Detroit Lakes MN, called to say she had received the letter I had sent to the society. She has served as President for a number of years, with the exception of this year-her father has been ill and possibly died.

Teresa is married (2nd marriage) to Winfred Palmer (80), brother of Eulalia Palmer Fisher. Eulalia was married to Ralph Lawrence Fisher, son of Uncle Cyrus Everett Fisher of Audubon/Detroit Lakes, MN.

Eulalia is 88 years old and in the local nursing home. When she went to the home, Winfred and Teresa cleaned out her home. She kept the memorial books for Cyrus and Sallie which were Ralph's. Cyrus and Sallie (Sarah Flower or Fowler) are buried in Aberdeen, South Dakota. She also believes their daughter, Elizabeth, who was killed in a car accident is also buried there. Ralph is buried there also in the Riverside Cemetery in the NE corner.

Teresa will mail the memorial books to me this next week along with several letters written by Ralph or Albert to each other.

Winfred was also on the phone and said that Jim and Everett, Kyle Neil's sons were living in Sand Springs, OK in 1976.

HEART O'LAKES GENEALOGICAL LIBRARY
714 SUMMIT AVENUE
DETROIT LAKES, MINNESOTA 56501

Dear Librarian:

I am the niece of Cyrus "Evert" Fisher who lived in the Audubon/Detroit Lakes area for many years (definitely during the 40's), and I am searching for information on the family. He died on 2 Jan 1961, I believe in that area.

I have requested a death certificate and probate search from the county recorder. Are the local newspapers stored at this library? If so could you possibly furnish me with a copy of his obituary?

I am including a family group sheet which includes his family, in the hopes that there maybe someone in the area who was related to him.

Kyle Neil Fisher was Cyrus' son, is there an obituary for him? or his daughter, Elizabeth Rebecca Fisher Swenson, wife of Conwell Swenson. She died on 15 Dec 1925.

Our family has lost contact with this branch of the family, so any help you might give will be very much appreciated. We are hoping to make contact with Kyle Neil Fisher's sons, Albert Neil Fisher, James Thomas Fisher, or Evert Austin Fisher. All would be in the 50's age group at this time.

I am encrosing a check for $10, please advise if this does not cover the cost.

Person Sheet

Name	Elizabeth Gertrude HAIN[334]
Birth	1711, Livingston Manor, NY (probably)
Death	14 Jun 1768, Berks Co., Pennsylvania
Burial	Hain's Church, Berks Co., PA
Father	George HAIN
Mother	Veronica HAIN

Misc. Notes

Elizabeth Getrude Hain was born in 1711, probably at Livingston Manor, NY, as the name of her father appears on the list of the Palatines who were there in 1710-11, under indenture to Queen Anne, engaged in producing naval stores in order to repay the expenses of their transportation from England. She married William Fisher, the progenitor of the Fisher family which has been identified with Hain's Church and its neighboring communities from pioneer days.[334]

Spouses

1	William FISCHER[334]
Birth	11 Apr 1706, Langenselbohl, Germany
Death	23 Oct 1771, Berks Co., Pennsylvania
Burial	Hain's Church, Berks Co., PA

Misc. Notes

William was born in Langenselbohl, near Hanau in Hesse Cassel, according to a document in the nature of a passport given to him by the Chancellor of the Right Hon. Count and Lord Sir Wolfgang Ernstin, Count of Isenberg and Biedingen, an English translation of which was published on page 24 of the History of Hain's Church in 1916. He arrived in Philadelphia on August 17, 1733, on the ship Samuel of London, Hugh Percy, master, from Rotterdam, with a total of 291 Palatines on board. Probably late in the year of his arrival he married Elizabeth Gertrude hain. He became the owner of about one thousand acres of land in what are today Lower Heidelberg and Spring townships, Berks County. In 1752 and 1760 he was an elder of Hain's Church, and both William and Elizabeth Gertrude are buried close to the southwest corner of the church near the graves of her parents.

The eight sons of Wilhelm Fischer all served in the Continental Army during the Revolution. As can be expected, some served various enlistments at various times, according to the emergency; but it is worthy to note that at one time six of these sons served in the same company, as evidenced by a return of Colonel Joseph Hiester on May 31, 1781, in which appear the names of John, Henry, Fridrich, Georg, Pitter, and Michael Fisher,[366] while Frantz Fisher is noted in a regiment of the Continental Line and Philip Fisher in the Germen Regiment. The Revolutionary War tablet on the wall of Hain's Church mentions Frederic, Michael, Peter Sr., Peter Jr., and Philip Fisher.[334]

Children	Elizabeth Gertrude (~1734-?)
	Peter (1735-1787)
	Philip (1736-1803)

PREFACE

At the Ninth Annual Reunion of the Hain Family held on September 15th, 1940, a committee was appointed to arrange for the printing of the record of the descendants of George and Veronica Hain. The basis of this record was the chapter on the Hain Family prepared by Mrs. Frances Hain Swope and printed in the 1935 edition of the History of St. John's (Hain's) Reformed Church, which in turn was to a large extent compiled from the voluminous data relative to the Hain Family gathered by Henry B. Werner, husband of Eve Ann Hain. Over a number of years Mr. Werner showed indefatigable zeal and industry, by making many pedestrian journeys and otherwise, in collecting names, dates and historical facts, and several times felt so greatly discouraged by the many difficulties encountered in obtaining the information needed to make a satisfactory family record that he contemplated relinquishing the task. Being greatly interested in genealogical research, Mrs. Swope assumed the work of elaborating upon and more nearly completing the family record for inclusion in the above mentioned History of St. John's (Hain's) Church. Much credit is also due to Charles Fisher Snyder of Sunbury, Pa., for the record of the descendants of Elizabeth Hain, who married William Fisher.

No person is aware of the difficulties and perplexities experienced in collecting and arranging the genealogy and history of a large family except those who have tried it. From many miles of travel, an extensive correspondence, devotion of much time to the work, and a patient search of records, both public and private, this history has now resulted. It is inevitable that some errors have crept in, but the effort has been to make it as nearly correct as possible. The forebears were a sturdy line of farmers, with occasional merchants, innkeepers, millers, and professional men, all with capable helpmeets, such as form the warp and woof in the durable fabric of our American way of life.

Since it is purely a labor of love, without expectation of any remuneration to those engaged in the patient work, it is hoped that many will be interested in the effort to enable any member of the family to trace his connection with the parent stem. Some twigs and two branches have been lost, but the trunk with the remaining branches of this great family tree are found in the following pages. In the preparation of this family history the belief has constantly been held in mind that a volume, however accurate and complete its birth, marriage and death dates, cannot escape from being monotonous without the addition of supplementary historical, biograph-

Much credit is also due to Charles Fisher Snyder of Sunbury, Pa., for the record of the descendants of Elizabeth Hain, who married William Fisher.

No person is aware of the difficulties and perplexities experienced in collecting and arranging the genealogy and history of a large family except those who have tried it. Often many miles of travel, an extensive correspondence, devotion of much time to the work, and a patient search of records, both public and private, this history has now resulted. It is inevitable that some errors have crept in, but the effort has been to make it as nearly correct as possible. The forebears were a sturdy line of farmers, with occasional merchants, innkeepers, millers, and professional men, all with capable helpmeets, such as form the warp and woof in the durable fabric of our American way of life.

Since it is purely a labor of love, without expectation of any remuneration to those engaged in the patient work, it is hoped that many will be interested in the effort to enable any member of the family to trace his connection with the parent stem. Some twigs and two branches have been lost, but the trunk with the remaining branches of this great family tree are found in the following pages. In the preparation of this family history the belief has constantly been held in mind that a volume, however accurate and complete its birth, marriage and death dates, cannot escape from being monotonous without the addition of supplementary historical, biographical and anecdotal material. The cost of publication has made it impossible to carry any lineage beyond the 7th generation in this history.

The family name Hain is a derivative of the word Hahn, a Teutonic word for cock. Upon investigating the word Hahn, it is found to be as ancient as the German language itself. It stems from the earlier stage of the German tongue known as Middle High German wherein it appears as 'han'; and in Old High German, the oldest literary period of German, it is written 'hano.' Etymologists compare 'hahn' with the primitive Anglo-Saxon 'hana,' with the Old Icelandic form 'hane,' and the Gothic 'hana.'

As found in deeds, wills and public records, the descendants of George and Veronica Hain spelled their name in various ways, such as Hahn, Hehn, Höhn, Haine, Haein, Hean, Hene, Hen, Hon, Hayns and Hein. Where it is found applied to persons whose identification with the Hain Family is a matter of documentary record, the particular way of spelling may be due either to the unfamiliarity of the individual (if purporting to be his signature) with the customary English spelling of the name, or may be the work of a careless official.

In the monumental two volume work in French by J. B. Rietstap entitled "Armorial General" which contains the descriptions of the coats of arms of thousands of families throughout Europe, it will be observed that "le coq" is the distinctive feature of the coat of arms of sixty-three members of the Hahn Family wherever found and regardless of how spelled.

George and Veronica Hain

More than two centuries have passed since George and Veronica Hain, with thousands of courageous men and women from a principality in Germany called the Palatinate, braved the perils of sea and forest to establish homes in a new land where they might enjoy freedom without persecution. On landing at New York they were sent to Nuttal's, now Governor's Island, then the quarantine station, to be nursed and recruited for still further trials. In the autumn of 1710, about fifteen hundred were taken up the Hudson and settled on lands purchased from Robert Livingston by the Provincial Council of New York. The story of this group of immigrants has often been told and forms an interesting chapter of the history of New York as well as of Pennsylvania. It must have been a heartbreaking blow for this harassed group of men and women to be deprived of their lands and possessions, first by the continual civil and religious wars in Germany, and then in this country by the English in the New York colony to which they had been sent by Queen Anne. After the unfair treatment received in New York, they believed they could find safety in Pennsylvania. Leaving Schoharie in 1723, thirty-three families (followed by others five years later) traveled in a southwesterly direction through the forests until they reached the Susquehanna River, where they made rafts, and floated down the river to the mouth of the Swatara Creek south of Harrisburg. Thence they worked their way up this stream to the beautiful Lebanon Valley and the region of the Tulpehocken, along which creek they formed settlements. Thus they became pioneers of portions of Berks and Lebanon counties. From a point in the Lebanon Valley probably northwest of Myerstown they moved eastward, some settling in the Womelsdorf community and others finding homes in the Cacoosing section. In Conrad Weiser's diary we read that the early settlements were made without the consent of the Proprietary of Pennsylvania or his commissionaries, and against the consent of the Indians; also that for a considerable time they were absolutely without any law or government. The sons of George Hain during several years were far from well disposed towards Conrad Weiser but later became friends.

It is possible that George Hain, who belonged to the New York settlement, came to the Tulpehocken region after the first group had arrived there. His name first appears (as John George Höhn) in Ulster County, New York, where according to the magazine "Ye Old Ulster" there appears among the church records of the Kocherthal colony the following: "Baptized in Schoharie, June 6, 1716,

(II) ELIZABETH GERTRUDE HAIN (2) LINEAGE

Elizabeth Gertrude Hain (2) was born in 1711, probably at Livingston Manor, N. Y., as the name of her father appears on the list of the Palatines who were there in 1710-11, under indenture to Queen Anne, engaged in producing naval stores in order to repay the expenses of their transportation from England. She married William Fisher, the immigrant progenitor of the Fisher family which has been identified with Hain's Church and its neighboring communities from pioneer days. He was born April 11, 1706, in the Palatinate. In 1733 he left his home at Langenselbohl, near Hanau in Hesse Cassel, according to a document in the nature of a modern passport given to him by the Chancellor of the Right Hon. Count and Lord Sir Wolfgang Ernstin, Count of Isenberg and Biedingen, an English translation of which was published on page 24 of the History of Hain's Church printed in 1916. He arrived in Philadelphia on August 17, 1733, on the ship Samuel of London, Hugh Percy, master, from Rotterdam, with a total of 291 Palatines on board. Probably late in the year of his arrival he married Elizabeth Gertrude Hain. He became the owner of about one thousand acres of land in what are today Lower Heidelberg and Spring Townships, Berks County. In 1752 and 1760 he was an elder of Hain's Church, and both William and Elizabeth Gertrude are buried close to the southwest corner of the church near the graves of her parents. The old red sandstones marking their graves contain the following inscriptions:

Their descendants, in 1922, erected and unveiled at these graves a granite boulder with a bronze tablet, which was dedicated in 1923, marking the 200th anniversary of the arrival of William Fisher in America. The German spelling of the name was Wilhelm Fischer. The ending "in" in her name on the above inscription is the feminine ending in German.

As recorded on the tombstones, Wilhelm and Elizabeth had eleven children, eight sons and three daughters. This is further verified by his will in Berks County Will Book Z, page 132; also Will Book 2, page 9. They were:

(1) Elizabeth Gertrude (3), born about 1734. She married John Heckert, referred to by Wilhelm in his will as his son-in-law, and who was a deacon at Hain's Church in 1763.

(2) Peter Fischer (3), born September 8, 1735, died November 23, 1787, buried at Hain's Church about fifty feet west of his parents. He married Appolonia Heckert, daughter of Michael Heckert, in 1758, according to records of Rev. Waldschmidt (Penna. Archives, 6th Series, Volume VI, page 219). Peter was a deacon at Hain's Church in 1764. His will is recorded in Berks County Will Book 2A, page 161, proven March 11, 1788. He owned and lived on the farm about one half mile east of Wernersville, subsequently occupied by Abraham H. Miller and wife Eleanor Hain (6).

(3) Philip Fischer (3), born September 25, 1736, died August 14, 1803, buried at Hain's Church. His wife was Anna Maria Marshall. His will, made July 12, 1803, is recorded in Berks County.

(4) John Fischer (3), born May 1739, died 1812. He lived in Heidelberg Township. Married to Anna Catharine Marshall. His will is recorded in Will Book D, page 26, proven March 19, 1812.

(5) Henry Fischer (3), born 1739, died 1822. He was married to Christina Durst on September 28, 1761, by Rev. Waldschmidt. He was a deacon at Hain's Church in 1778.

(6) Michael Fischer (3), born 1743, died 1822. He married Catharine Bollman. They lived in Spring Township, Berks County. pg 18

(7) Susanna Fischer (3), born about 1743, married George Hill, died 1791.

(8) Rosina Fischer (3), born about 1745, married April 10, 1764, to Peter Grauel, son of Michael Grauel, by Rev. Waldschmidt.

(9) Frantz Fischer (3), born May, 1747.

(10) Frederick Fischer (3), born May 5, 1750, died October 17, 1828, buried at Hain's Church. He was married to Gertrude Faust on May 18, 1775, and lived in Spring Township, Berks County, where he was a farmer and a blacksmith.

(11) John George Fischer (3), born May 31, 1752, married Catharine _____.

The record of the christening of the last three may be found on pages 28-29 of the 1916 History of Hain's Church.

DAR?

The eight sons of Wilhelm Fischer all served in the Continental Army during the Revolution. As can be expected, some served various enlistments at various times, according to the emergency; but it is worthy of note that at one time six of these sons served in the same company, as is evidenced by a return of Captain Sebastian Miller's Company of Berks County Militia under Colonel Joseph Hiester on May 31, 1781, in which appear the names of John, Henry, Fridrich, Georg, Pitter, and Michael Fisher (Pa. Arch., 5th Series, vol. V., pg. 211), while Frantz Fisher is noted in a regiment of the Continental Line and Philip Fisher in the German Regiment. The Revolutionary War tablet on the wall of Hain's Church mentions Frederic, Michael, Peter, Sr., Peter, Jr., and Philip Fisher.

(1) ELIZABETH GERTRUDE (3) (the eldest daughter of Wilhelm and Elizabeth Gertrude Hain Fischer), married John ded by his will in Berks County Will Book 2, page 132; also Will Book 4, page 9. They were:

(1) Elizabeth Gertrude (3), born about 1734. She married John Hiechert, referred to by Wilhelm in his will as his son-in-law, and who was a deacon at Hain's Church in 1763.

(2) Peter Fischer (3), born September 8, 1735, died November 21, 1797, buried at Hain's Church about fifty feet west of his parents. He married Agnetona Hechert, daughter of Michael Hechert, in 1758, according to records of Rev. Waldschmidt (Penna. Archives, 6th Series, Volume VI, page 219). Peter was a deacon at Hain's Church in 1763. His will is recorded in Berks County Will Book 24, page 161, proven March 11, 1798. He owned and lived on the farm about one half mile east of Werpersville, subsequently occupied by Abraham H. Miller and wife Eleanor Hain (9).

(3) Philip Fischer (3), born September 21, 1736, died August 14, 1809, buried at Hain's Church. His wife was Anna Maria Maisnall. His will, made July 12, 1809, is recorded in Berks County.

(4) John Fischer (3), born May 1738, died 1812. He lived in Heidelberg Township. Married to Anna Catharine Marshall. His will is recorded in Will Book D page 33, proven March 19, 1812.

(5) Henry Fischer (3), born 1739, died 1822. He was married to Christina Durst on September 23, 1761, by Rev. Waldschmidt. He was a deacon at Hain's Church in 1778.

2. Rosina Fisher (4), born January 13, 1761, died Jan. 20, 1815, married Valentine Mosser, buried at Epler's Church.

3. Peter Fisher, Jr. (4), born November 25, 1761. He served during the Revolution in the same company with his father, Captain John Ludwig's Company in 1780, 6th Battalion, Berks County Militia. (Penna. Arch., 5th Series, Vol. V, p. 238.) No record of his children, if any.

4. Michael Fisher (4), born June 10, 1763.

5. John Fisher (4), born about 1764. Married Rosina Hain on March 21, 1796 (1778-1827), the daughter of John and Anna Maria (Gushwa) Hain. John Fisher was a deacon at Hain's Church in 1793. His homestead was on the farm still owned by his great-grandson, Samuel R. Fisher (7), of Wernersville. It lies in the valley of Spring Creek midway between Hain's Church and Robesonia. Here in the early 1800's, John Fisher established a paper mill, which was one of the leading industries of the section at that day. He had a family of eleven children, six sons and five daughters, as follows:

a. Elenore Fisher (5), born June 2, 1797, married March 5, 1816, John Sohl.

b. Samuel Fisher (5), born October 28, 1799, died January 16, 1875, married Elizabeth Laucks, December 28, 1821. He was a deacon at Hain's Church in 1829. Their son, Reilly L. Fisher (6), born November 12, 1822, was the father of Samuel R. Fisher (7) of Wernersville, born Jan. 10, 1854.

c. Peter Fisher (5), born December 13, 1801, married 1823 Mary Klopp.

d. Anna Catharine Fisher (5), born September 12, 1804, married David Wenrich.

e. Elizabeth Fisher (5), born October 6, 1805, died January 5, 1809.

f. John Fisher (5), born March 15, 1808, died April 23, 1809.

g. Anna Fisher (5), born March 17, 1810, married Peter Klopp.

h. Elijah Fisher (5), born August 28, 1812, married Caroline Shower.

Name	William FISCHER[334]
Birth	11 Apr 1706, Langenselbohl, Germany
Death	23 Oct 1771, Berks Co., Pennsylvania
Burial	Hain's Church, Berks Co., PA

Misc. Notes

William was born in Langenselbohl, near Hanau in Hesse Cassel, according to a document in the nature of a passport given to him by the Chancellor of the Right Hon. Count and Lord Sir Wolfgang Ernstin, Count of Isenberg and Biedingen, an English translation of which was published on page 24 of the History of Hain's Church in 1916. He arrived in Philadelphia on August 17, 1733, on the ship Samuel of London, Hugh Percy, master, from Rotterdam, with a total of 291 Palatines on board. Probably late in the year of his arrival he married Elizabeth Gertrude hain. He became the owner of about one thousand acres of land in what are today Lower Heidelberg and Spring townships, Berks County. In 1752 and 1760 he was an elder of Hain's Church, and both William and Elizabeth Gertrude are buried close to the southwest corner of the church near the graves of her parents.

The eight sons of Wilhelm Fischer all served in the Continental Army during the Revolution. As can be expected, some served various enlistments at various times, according to the emergency; but it is worthy to note that at one time six of these sons served in the same company, as evidenced by a return of Colonel Joseph Hiester on May 31, 1781, in which appear the names of John, Henry, Fridrich, Georg, Pitter, and Michael Fisher,[366] while Frantz Fisher is noted in a regiment of the Continental Line and Philip Fisher in the Germen Regiment. The Revolutionary War tablet on the wall of Hain's Church mentions Frederic, Michael, Peter Sr., Peter Jr., and Philip Fisher.[334]

Birth	1711, Livingston Manor, NY (probably)
Death	14 Jun 1768, Berks Co., Pennsylvania
Burial	Hain's Church, Berks Co., PA
Father	George HAIN
Mother	Veronica HAIN

Misc. Notes

Elizabeth Getrude Hain was born in 1711, probably at Livingston Manor, NY, as the name of her father appears on the list of the Palatines who were there in 1710-11, under indenture to Queen Anne, engaged in producing naval stores in order to repay the expenses of their transportation from England. She married William Fisher, the progenitor of the Fisher family which has been identified with Hain's Church and its neighboring communities from pioneer days.[334]

Cathy, I am Barbara Fulton of Bartlesville, OK and Henry Fisher was my great-great grandfather. My branch continues through James Thomas Fisher who lived in Blackwell, OK. I would like to correspond with you. I have other information that I would be glad to share with you. Looking forward to hearing from you.

Description:
Updated annually, this database is an index to passengers who arrived in United States and Canadian ports from the 1500s through the 1900s. It contains listings of approximately 4,588,000 individuals and references thousands of different records compiled from everything from original passenger lists to personal diaries. For each individual listed, you may find the following information: name, age, year and place of arrival, and the source of the record. Learn more...

Subject: Need to talk Fisher Genealogy
From: bfulton <bfulton@fullnet.net>
Date: Sun, 15 Feb 2009 09:29:53 -0600
To: dean grimm <ku1958grimm@comcast.net>

Dean, I would like to talk with you on the phone about our Fisher family. I have info that goes back to Adam Fisher b. 1774 d. 1840 b. Newberry Farm, Mason Co. WV.
From Adam continuing back there seems to be some erroneous information or what I would call doubtful. I have been given that Adam's father is Michael Peter b. about 1741 Berks Co., PA d. 1809 Sheperdstown, Jefferson Co., WV. Married Maria Dora (No surname)
I am find the following on the Internet for Adam's father:
1. Joh Michael b. abt. 1731 in Berks Co. PA d. 18 Jan 1822 Spring Twp, Berks, PA
Married twice 1 . Mary (Maria) Magdelena Eisenhauer, b. 1730 Wechnitz, Starkenburg, Hesse, GER
2. Catherine Bollman show she is the daughter of Elizabeth Gertrude Hain and William Fisher
This person is showing children John Michael Fisher, Peter and Adam.
I have found the Hain History book and the children of Elizabeth and William might be a connection, but...

Another researcher shows Adam's father is William 1742-1822 mar Maria Dora, Child only Adam.
Another researcher shows Adam's birth date 21 Jan 1742 Heidleberg; d. 20 Jan 1822 Heidleberg, Berks, PA mar Elizabeth Hain, Michael child.
Another researcher shows Adam's father as Ludwick Jacob married to Elizabeth Another researcher shows Adam's father as Michael Peter b 1741 Berks Co., Michael's father William Fisher and Elizabeth Hain.

I wondering what you have--I know you have documentation to back up your research.
When can I call you to talk? We also going the doctor visits route--will be home Monday morning, out in the afternoon.
Tuesday out in the morning, home afternoon and evening. Would any these work for you?
What is the name of the David you correspond with?

Reunion in Fisher & Hain

Penn's Tavern in Herndon is the oldest building in Northumberland County. Known as "the Old Stone House at Fishers Ferry," Penn's Tavern was built in 1703 by Conrad Weiser on land given to him by Chief Shikellamy, the great Iroquois peacemaker. The house was once the home of Peter Fisher, and John Penn, grandson of William Penn, was reunited with his dying wife, Marie Cox, at Penn's Tavern. Today, people often say they see the image of a woman in the upstairs bedroom window of the tavern. Some workers and guests report strange experiences.

The Unaccountable Weiser Letter

By FRANK E. LICHTENTHAELER

The finding of an old letter is always a thrilling experience and when the salutation reads, "Dear Friend Conrad Weiser" there immediately looms the alluring prospect of unearthing long hidden morsels of history or at least important clues to such treasure. Consequently, the wide interest aroused by the reappearance of a message written at Heidelberg, Pennsylvania, in 1729, and dispatched to Weiser at Schoharie, New York, is readily understood. Eugen Schopf's J. K. Weiser, Vater und Sohn, published at Stuttgart in 1938, quoted the letter as part of a much distorted account of the settlement of Tulpehocken in 1723, but without definite reference to its source. It fell to Doctor Preston A. Barba to discover the letter's origin: L. A. Wollenweber's Aus Berks County's Schwerer Zeit, published at Reading Pennsylvania, in 1875. Under this title Wollenweber presented a number of stories, one of which, "Conrad Weiser's Heimath," includes the letter in question. Doctor Barba's translation follows:

Heidelberg in Pennsylvania.
May 18, 1729.

Dear Friend Conrad Weiser:

You know when we left you in Schoharie in March, 1723, that we were very poor, yes, very poor, and since we realized that we would have to perish altogether there, we came to the courageous resolve to traverse the terrible wilderness hither, and with regard to the Indians we followed your advice which also proved to be extremely useful to us, for which we thank you heartily. We reached the North Branch of the Susquehanna without any unusual obstacles. There we tarried for a time to construct rafts and canoes, upon which we loaded our families and effects and then journeyed southward until we might find a suitable place which would serve us as a home. One group of us, to whom was assigned the care of our domestic animals, had to drive them down stream along the shore, and we agreed that those who arrived first at the mouth of a creek flowing into the Susquehanna should wait there until the entire caravan had arrived.

Everything proceeded fortunately and the dear God kept us all in good health until we came to the mouth of the Swatara creek, where we left our rafts and canoes, and then continued inland upon the advice of a hunter, to a creek, which, he said, flowed from west to east. We also soon found the creek and what the hunter had told us was confirmed. The land is beautiful, fertile, and has the best springs and sufficient water power. Each of us already has made sufficient land arable to support his family, and in addition a considerable surplus. Our stock of cattle is excellent and we already have several mills along the Tulpehocken and the Muhlbach. Because of its beauty we have called the region Heidelberg. Our anxieties about sustenance have ceased, but the Indians are beginning to cause unpleasantnesses. How happy we should therefore be if you would decide to come to us; we want to procure for you a splendid home. Come right soon!

Whoever has read Doctor Barba's timely presentation of "Conrad Weiser's Heimath"' will be inclined to agree that the story follows the outline of Weiser's brief "Autobiography," amplified to satisfy the storyteller's bent for color and detail. The inserted "letter" seems to derive from the story rather than being a primary source in the author's mind from which his account of the Susquehanna journey emanated. In fact the letter reviews the previously known material without adding any new information to further illuminate the stirring events which must have characterized that hazardous undertaking. The plan for maintaining contact between the canoe party and the cattle drive, each awaiting the other at the mouths of streams, appears for the first time, but not without its suggestion of ingenuous invention. Six years had intervened from the time of the migration to the date of the letter. In that period the itinerant preacher, John Bernhard von Duebren, is known to have traveled back and forth between Schoharie and Tulpehocken. Therefore it is inconceivable that Conrad Weiser was not fully informed concerning every detail of the long journey and the progress of the new settlement in Pennsylvania. Yet the letter implies that in May, 1729, Weiser was being told for the first time that "everything had proceeded fortunately."

The Unaccountable Weiser Letter

By FRANK E. LICHTENTHALER

The finding of an old letter is always a thrilling experience and when the salutation reads, "Dear Friend Conrad Weiser" there immediately looms the alluring prospect of unearthing long hidden morsels of history or at least important clues to such treasure. Consequently, the wide interest aroused by the reappearance of a message written at Heidelberg, Pennsylvania, in 1729, and dispatched to Weiser at Schoharie, New York, is readily understood. Eugen Schopf's J. K. Weiser, Vater und Sohn, published at Stuttgart in 1932, quoted the letter as part of a much detached account of the settlement of Tulpehocken in 1723, but without definite reference to its source. It fell to Doctor Preston A. Barba to discover the letter's origin. L. A. Wollenweber's Aus Berks County's Schwerer Zeit, published at Reading Pennsylvania, in 1873. Under this title Wollenweber presented a number of stories, one of which, "Conrad Weiser's Heimath," includes the letter in question. Doctor Barba's translation follows:

Heidelberg in Pennsylvania
May 16, 1729

Dear Friend Conrad Weiser:

You know when we left you in Schoharie in March, 1723, that we were very poor, yes, very poor, and sorry we realized that we would have to perish altogether there, we came to the courageous resolve to leave the terrible wilderness hither, and with regard to the Indians we followed your advice which also proved to be extremely useful to us, for which we thank you heartily. We reached the North Branch of the Susquehanna without any unusual obstacles. There we landed for a time to construct rafts and canoes, upon which we loaded our families and attacks and then journeyed southward until we might find a suitable place which would serve us as a home. One group of us, to whom was assigned the care of our domestic animals, had to drive them down stream along the shore, and we agreed that those who arrived first at the mouth of a creek flowing into the Susquehanna should wait there until the entire caravan had arrived.

Everything proceeded fortunately and the dear God kept us all in good health until we came to the mouth of the Swatara creek, where we left our rafts and canoes, and then continued inland upon the advice of a hunter, to a creek, which, he said, flowed from west to east. We also soon found the creek and what the hunter had told us was confirmed. The land is beautiful, fertile, and has the best springs and sufficient water power. Each of us already has made sufficient land arable to support his family, and in addition a considerable surplus. Our stock of cattle is excellent and we already have several mills along the Tulpehocken and the Muhlbach. Because of its beauty we have called the region Heidelberg. Our anxieties about sustenance have ceased, but the Indians are beginning to cause unpleasantnesses. How happy we should therefore be if you would decide to come to us, we want to provide for you a splendid home. Come right soon!

Whoever has read Doctor Barba's timely presentation of "Conrad Weiser's Heimath" will be inclined to agree that the story follows the outline of Weiser's brief "Autobiography," amplified to satisfy the storyteller's inert for color and detail. The inserted "letter" seems to derive from the story rather than being a primary source in the author's mind from which his account of the Susquehanna journey emanated. In fact the letter reviews the previously known material without adding any new information to further illuminate the stirring events which must have characterized that hazardous undertaking. The plan for maintaining contact between the canoe party and the cattle drive, each awaiting the other at the mouths of streams, appears for the first time, but not without its suggestion of ingenious invention. Six years had intervened from the time of the migration to the date of the letter. In that period the itinerant preacher, John Bernhard von Dudenen, is known to have traveled back and forth between Schoharie and Tulpehocken. Therefore it is inconceivable that Conrad Weiser was not fully informed concerning every detail of the long journey and the progress of the new settlement in Pennsylvania. Yet the letter implies that in May, 1729, Weiser was being told for the first time that "everything had proceeded fortunately."

Wollenweber introduced the letter with the statement: "Since these disorders with the redmen seemed to come to no end the pioneers along the Tulpehocken held council and concluded to send two men to Schoharie with the following letter to Conrad Weiser (the original letter was up to a few years ago in the possession of the Honorable Henry A. Muhlenberg)." At the time of Wollenweber's publication, 1875, the Honorable Henry A. Muhlenberg, ambassador to Austria in 1838, had been dead thirty-one years. His distinguished son, Henry A. Muhlenberg, had been dead twenty-one years. As a member of Congress he, too, may have been accorded the title "Honorable." Which of these gentlemen Wollenweber intended does not concern our case, as the Weiser manuscripts were possessed by both in turn. Wollenweber migrated to the United States in 1832 and lived at various times at Philadelphia, Womelsdorf and Reading. He was engaged in printing, newspaper publishing, and steam-ship agency work until 1855. Had he copied the "letter" during the lifetime of one or the other of the mentioned Muhlenbergs, or did he compose it from memory, or hearsay, tinged with imagination and helped by bits of information gleaned from various sources?

Daniel Rupp published his History of Berks and Lebanon Counties in 1844. In the preface he acknowledges information received from many persons, among them the Honorable Henry A. Muhlenberg, who also was listed as one of the subscribers. Rupp had access to the Weiser manuscripts as his account of "Conrad Weiser" attests. It seems unlikely that so important a letter as that presented by Wollenweber would have escaped his attention had it been in Mr. Muhlenberg's possession. This is not to question Wollenweber's veracity. Montgomery speaks of his genial and sociable disposition and upright deportment. Doctor Barba points to the fact that "he was the first to see in the history and legendry of the Pennsylvania German people a rich material for literary exploitation." So, it becomes a delicate proceeding to question the authenticity of material quoted by a writer of undoubted personal integrity. However, in former days the lines were not so rigidly drawn and the modern conception of historical exactness did not apply. The quite innocent fabrication of letters and events entirely for literary effect was not uncommon and often such contributions have proved an unintended stumbling block to those engaged in historical research. The point to be remembered is that Wollenweber was not writing history; rather, his narratives might be termed historical novelettes, permitting all the latitude of invention the story-teller requires. He knew that many of Weiser's letters were preserved by Mr. Mublenberg; probably he had had access to them. Accordingly, in later years he may have composed the letter to give life and reality to a story which was especially planned to arouse public interest in the restoration of Conrad Weiser's neglected grave at Womelsdorf.

Wollenweber seemed impatient of the limitations imposed by the scant knowledge available and unhesitatingly filled in the gaps with lively events and improbable localities, pictured by a vivid imagination. For example, his account of the relations between the young Conrad and the Mohawk chieftain, Quagnant, seems largely adventitious. Modern historians are still searching for the abode of Quagnant, who instructed the German youth in the ways and speech of the Iroquois. Wollenweber cursorily places the village "near Niagara Falls," west of the land of the Senecas; far beyond the limits of probability. Not satisfied with the dreadful impediments of the Susquehanna shore passage, he has the Palatines build rafts for the transportation of unruly cattle. He introduces Indian hostilities at Tulpehocken with "bloody scenes, plunderings and destruction of buildings by fire," a state of affairs all too true in 1754 but not known to apply in the peaceful time of 1729. These and many similar historical discrepancies are sufficient warning to apply discretion in appraising his narratives as historical sources.

The letter itself exhibits many peculiarities of expression and content. "Schoharie" and "Swatara" were not so spelled in 1729. As late as 1745 Weiser himself called these localities "Schochary" and "Suataro;" other usual spellings were "Schory," "Swattarra," and so on. That the composers of the letter had been "very poor, yes, very poor, " to the verge of perishing, would have applied at Schoharie in 1713, but not in 1723. The impracticability of the cattle drive all along the shore of the Susquehanna has been discussed sufficiently in previous articles. But the added improbability of each party awaiting the other at the mouths of streams entering the Susquehanna has every appearance of innovation. Whoever has paddled a canoe down stream on the spring flood must cringe at the thought of timing such a voyage to the snail's pace of a herd of cattle. Then, there is that offhand dismissal of one of the most adventurous episodes of our early history, contained in the expression "everything proceeded fortunately." Could any participant in so arduous and dangerous a journey write of the experience without mentioning a single item of hazard, of casualty, or sudden death?

The six signatures are strangely ambiguous; not one of them permits identification of the individual with any degree of certainty. Initials in place of given names was not the custom in those days. Moreover it is doubtful whether several of the family names belong to Schoharie despite the implication that all six of the signatories had participated in the Susquehanna adventure. Hehn (Hahn, Ham), Fischer and Anspach are well known Tulpehocken names of New York Palatine origin. The first two families came from Schoharie; but the Anspachs had remained on the Hudson, at Hunterstown, and were still there in 1717. They may have moved to Schoharie sometime later, but the name does not appear in Schoharie records. In a list of names associated with Tulpehocken, given by Rupp, the name Peter Anspach appears; probably a son of the original Balthaser Anspach, who sometimes gave his name as Paltus. Therefore "P. Anspach" might refer to either the son or the father. Georg and Veronica Hahn had eight sons and, as was usual, they used John as a prefixed name -John Christian, John Georg, and so on. The youngest son Wollenweber introduced the letter with the statement: "Since these dialogues with the redman seemed to come to no end the pioneers along the Tulpenoken field council and concluded to send two men to Schoharie with the following letter to Conrad Weiser (the original letter was up to a few years ago in the possession of the Honorable Henry A. Muhlenberg)." At the time of Wollenweber's publication, 1875, the Honorable Henry A. Muhlenberg, ambassador to Austria in 1829, had been dead thirty-one years. His distinguished son, Henry A. He introduces Indian hostilities at Tulpehocken with "bloody scenes, plundering and destruction of buildings by fire," a state of affairs all too true in 1754 but not known to apply in the peaceful time of 1728. These and many similar historical discrepancies are sufficient warning to apply discretion in appraising his narratives as historical sources.

The letter itself exhibits many peculiarities of expression and content. "Schoharie" and "Swatara" were not so spelled in 1728. As late as 1745 Weiser himself called these localities "Schochary" and "Swatero," other usual spellings were "Schorry," "Swattara," and so on. That the composers of the letter had been "very poor, very, very poor," to the verge of perishing, would have applied at Schoharie in 1713, but not in 1723. The six signatures are strangely ambiguous; not one of them permits identification of the individual with any degree of certainty. Names in place of given names was not the custom in those days. Moreover it is doubtful whether several of the family names belong to Schoharie despite the implication that all six of the signatures had participated in the Susquehanna adventure. Hahn (Hahn, Hahn), Fischer and Ansbach are well known Tulpehocken names of New York Palatine origin. The first two families came from Schoharie, but the Ansbachs had remained on the Hudson, at Hunterstown, and were still there in 1717. They may have moved to Schoharie sometime later, but the name does not appear in Schoharie records. In a list of names associated with Tulpehocken, given by Rupp, the name Peter Ansbach appears, probably a son of the original Battlereer Ansbach, who sometimes gave his name as Paltus. Therefore "P. Ansbach" might refer to either the son or the father. Georg and Veronica Hahn had eight sons and, as was usual, they used John as a prefixed name -John Christian, John Georg, and so on. The youngest son was Joseph Hahn, but he was not born until after 1724. It is unlikely that any of those sons would have signed indefinitely as "J. Hehn." "P. Fischer," by a stretch of imagination, might have been the son of Sebastian Fischer, although none of the available lists names him.

The names Lauer, Löwengut and Christ are not traceable to Schoharie. The Palatine immigrant, Peter Lauer, remained on the Hudson and was there as late as 1724. He had two children, names and sex unknown. Christian Lauer who settled at Tulpehocken some time later, landed at Philadelphia, September 18, 1733. The name Löwengut, frequently credited with Schoharie origin, does not appear in the New York Subsistence Lists nor in Simmendinger's Register of the Schoharie Dorfs; and the same must be said of the name "Christ." On the other hand, Jery Heine (Hahn), Sebastian Fischer and Palsus Onspach (Anspach) appear in an indisputable list of the thirty-three first settlers of Tulpehocken, the date of that list being January, 1726. The names Lauer, Löwengut and Christ do not appear. This solid evidence rather definitely excludes three of the signers of the questioned letter from participation in the migration of 1723. If only one of the six signatories could be identified beyond doubt it might be taken as slight evidence in support of the letter. But left without a single identification one's uncertainty concerning that curious message is brought to the verge of disbelief.

Finally, the date of the letter, May 18, is far from convincing. By the most direct route it could not have reached Conrad Weiser at Schoharie until after June 1. If, as implied, it was the cause of his moving to Tulpehocken, it occasioned a much later start than that experienced woodsman and farmer would have relished. The insect pests prevalent in June and July would have inflicted untold misery upon himself and family throughout their wilderness journey. In some of his letters he expressed in no uncertain terms his disfavor of travel in the early summer for that very reason. However, Wollenweber allows that he arrived at Tulpehocken in the fall of 1729. Of first importance was the planting of the garden and the fields of grain indispensable to the support of his family in the new location. Accompanied by his wife and four children (Wollenweber added an extra child), he hardly would have expected good friends and neighbors to supply shelter and food throughout the ensuing winter and spring. Unfortunately, we do not know the month of 1729 selected for the journey but can surmise from many circumstances that he would have left Schoharie as early in the spring as weather conditions permitted.

At best we have only an apparent transcription which, for obvious reasons, must he held unaccountable, pending discovery of the original letter, or more convincing proof of its onetime existence. The two known repositories of Weiser records, letters and manuscripts are the Library of Congress and the Historical Society of Pennsylvania. Both have been consulted and have disclaimed possession and knowledge of the letter. However, there is always the possibility that unpublished records or well founded family traditions may be forthcoming, presenting new facts and probabilities such as would help dispose of the uncertainties we have enumerated. As outstanding events of local history, the migration of 1723 and settlement of Tulpehocken warrant extended research and discussion toward enlargement of our regrettably meager knowledge. But questionable and unproven information tends only to distort the dim picture. Hence this analysis of hopefully studied material which bears a stamp of origin, yet presents seemingly revamped accounts of doubtful acceptability. We invoke the ghosts of Weisers, Hehns, Fischers, Anspachs and other actual participants to give conclusive testimony in the case of Wollenweber's unaccountable "letter," and, while on the stand, to relate the whole truth concerning their long journey in the spring of 1723.

Valentine Herchelroth left quite a few records. Unfortunately, no record is found of any children. Research in local deeds of the period provides this information about him:[33]

1738: bought land from Caspar Wistar in Tulpehocan;

1751: bought land in Lancaster borough;

1753: loaned (mortgage) money; listed as of Heidelberg (now in Berks County;

1755 & 1777: took out mortgage on land in Tulpehocon Creek;

1756: sheriff's sale of land; listed as late of Lancaster.

Rupp says that Valentine was in Lancaster County by 1719 and was a member of the German Reformed Church in 1735-55.[34] He was naturalized in 1738/9 in Lancaster County.[35]

Valentine married Eve Lein 1 Mar 1740.[36] She may have been a daughter or relative of John Lein, a neighbor of Valentine on the Tulpehocken. Valentine then married at Christ Church 31 May 1748 Barbara, widow of George Unruh.[37] A George Unrook was on the naturalization list of 1738/9 with Valentine, and a George Unruh is listed as an inhabitant of Plumton Manor, in Tulpehocken Township, in an area now in Berks County.[38] George Unruh is also listed with Sebastian Fisher and Christian Lauer as giving five acres to Christ Lutheran Church in 1743. This may be the same church in which Barbara and Valentine were married.[39]

In July 1757, during the Indian wars, a letter was mailed from Heidelberg, Berks County: "Yesterday, about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, between Valentine Herchelroad's and Tobias Bickel's farm, Indians killed two children."[40] No subsequent reference to Valentine has been found.

The other Herchelroth family was John Heinrich and his father, Lorentz. John Heinrich was a member of the German Reformed Church.[41] He and his wife, Joan Elizabeth, had five known children:[42] Johann Heinrich; John Matthew, born 13 Jan 1741; Lorentz, born 16 Aug 1742, bapt. 16 Aug 1743; Anna Elizabeth, born 16 Apr 1745; and Johannes, born 1746. The ages of his children indicate that he was about the same age as John Herchelroth. The names of the children are also similar.

Lorentz Herchelrothe is mentioned as the grandfather and sponsor of John Heinrich's son, Lorentz.[43] It is not known if Lorentz, the elder, is the father of John and/or Valentine. John Herchelroth did have a son named Lorentz (Lawrence), so it is possible.

John Heinrich (Henry) died before 1752, since the letters of administration for his wife, Joan Elizabeth, who died that year, show that she was the wife of

Womelsdorf changed to Middletown

Chapter XIV.
NOTED SONS AND DAUGHTERS

It will take another chapter to name the noted and successful sons and daughters who have gone out from Womelsdorf and reflected honor upon it. There are many names which Womelsdorf is proud to mention and which she will always be proud to claim as her children. We have given a list of teachers and professional men, especially doctors and ministers. We shall follow this with others in other walks of life who have added glory to the place of their birth and training.

Taking up the legal profession, we have spoken of the Ermentrouts and Livingoods of the past generations; also of the Seltzer Bros., who have all graced the profession of law and jurisprudence and a number of them rose to the highest honors our county can bestow.

Among others in the same profession is Harry P. Keiser. He was born in Womelsdorf, son of John G. and Rebecca M. Keiser, grew up to manhood here, got his earliest mental training here in the public schools and town academy, taught school here at an early age, when the writer remembers him as a buoyant and promising youth. While teaching he looked forward to the law as his profession and did some preliminary reading, and in 1879 registered as a student at law with J. Howard Jacobs, then one of the leading practitioners in the Berks county courts as a criminal lawyer. In Mr. Jacobs' office young Mr. Keiser got excellent training, and upon his admission into practice remained with Mr. Jacobs, a few years later establishing the law firm of Jacobs & Keiser. This relationship continued until the death of the senior partner in 1902, since which time Mr. Keiser has been practicing alone.

CITY SOLICITOR.

He served as city solicitor of Reading for three years. Mr. Keiser is still a loyal son of Womelsdorf, where he was born, got his start in life, married his wife, Valeria A. Kintzer, a daughter of Isaac T. Kintzer, long a justice of the peace in Womelsdorf, and for two years, 1896-1897, warden of the Berks county prison; and where all his forebears on both sides of his parentage have lived, died and been buried for a number of generations.

Another lawyer of the Berks county bar is William H. Fisher, a descendant of an old German pioneer, Sebastian Fisher, who settled early in what is now North Heidelberg township, a little to the east of the Klopp Store neighborhood. His ancestors were loyal Americans, having part in the two martial struggles with England. The lawyer's great-grandfather, John Fisher, was a soldier in the War of 1812, and participated in the battle of Baltimore, in August, 1814, in which engagement, one night, Francis Scott Key wrote the immortal song, "The Star-Spangled Banner." Lawyer Fisher's father was a teacher of North Heidelberg for 25 years and justice of the peace of the township for many years. The son prepared and qualified at 16 years of age to follow his father's profession temporarily. Subsequently he was graduated from the Keystone State Normal School, class of 1897. He studied law under the preceptorship of Christian H. Ruhl.

He was admitted to practice in the Berks county courts on Nov. 12, 1900, and later to practice in the Supreme Court of the state. As a side issue he has also been engaged in the building business at Reading and erected many houses. All his kin and early associations lead his mind and memory to this western end of the county as "back home."

ANOTHER WOMELSDORFIAN.

Still another son of this community following the legal profession in Reading is the present district attorney, H. Robert Mays. He is a full-blooded Womelsdorfian. His parents and ancestors have lived here and nearby, at Schaefferstown, for generations. His brother, Jacob H. Mays, is a resident and successful businessman of Womelsdorf. Mr. Mays, the lawyer, was born here, the son of Henry G. and Susan M. (nee Deppen) Mays. After finishing his studies in the town schools, he attended for a while Albright and Franklin and Marshall Colleges, graduating from the Dickinson Law School at Carlisle in 1902. He read law with the Rothermel Bros., of Reading, the senior member, Hon. John H., filling at one time the office of congressman from this district. He was admitted to practice on Feb. 20, 1904.

Mr. Mays is borough solicitor of this, his native town, and also of the Womelsdorf Union Bank and the present district attorney of Berks county.

Before we turn to other classes of celebrities, we must not fail to mention one in whom this community has a right to feel a just pride, namely Judge George W. Wagner. Although not born here, or of Womelsdorf parentage, he owes his training as a youth to our local Bethany Orphans' Home, into which he was admitted at seven years of age, shortly after the death of both his parents. Here he was trained until he was able to care for himself. He then pursued his further studies at the Marion Academy of Stouchsburg and the State Normal School at Kutztown, graduating with first honors in the class of 1881. He taught school a few years, but continued his studies and was graduated from Franklin and Marshall College in 1885.

For four years thereafter he taught mathematics at the Kutztown Normal School, but pursued his law studies meanwhile, being registered as a student-at-law with J. H. Marx, of Kutztown. He then entered the law office of Cyrus G. Derr and continued his studies here till admitted to the Berks county bar in November, 1890. He served as district attorney and was admitted to the Superior and Supreme Courts of the state and the District, Circuit and Supreme Court of the United States. Since 1909 he has been a judge of the Court of Common Pleas of this county. He also served for six years as a member of the Reading school board and for a year as its president, while he serves the Bethany Orphans' Home on its board of managers.

Another very successful son of this community is Josiah E. Price, son of John and Mary (Deppen) Price, who was born at Womelsdorf (on the old Deppen farm), Dec. 4, 1843. He was educated in the town schools (Academy), and at Reading. He taught school, worked in art studios of Maurer & Davis until 1864, when he secured a position with the P. & R. R. R. Co. in the office of G. A. Nicolls, Esq., then the general superintendent of the company. He advanced rapidly and in 1877 was transferred to the accounting department at Philadelphia, where the general offices were then situated. In 1892 he was appointed auditor of disbursements of the Reading system and has been at the head of this important department until recently, when he was retired on pension. His efficiency was recognized by his selection as a member of the Association of American Railway Ac-

ANNALS OF WOMELSDORF AND COMMUNITY

Chapter I.

INTRODUCTION

This reprint in book form is made at the urgent request of many who read the original articles as they appeared in the columns of the Reading Eagle from September, 1922, to February, 1923. A few necessary alterations appear and the illustrations are added.

For the many kind words spoken and appreciative letters written the author is very grateful. He also acknowledges the kind courtesy of the authors of "The Story of Berks County," for the use of a number of cuts here reproduced.

*Next year it will be 200 years since the first white colony of settlers began the march of civilization at the Tulpehocken in the now famous and charming Lebanon Valley. It is 35 years earlier in its beginnings than Reading, which will celebrate its 175th anniversary next fall. This Tulpehocken community will then be two full centuries old and should celebrate its bicentennial.

In Ministry 42 Years.

The present writer here began his public ministry in 1879, and now, in the spring of 1921, after 42 years of an active pastorate, removed hither from Illinois to spend his remaining days in professional retirement. He has again identified himself with this historic community and desires to write a series of articles of a historical, industrial and biographical character descriptive of this community, which he trusts may awaken and stimulate the spirit of local pride, of community interest and of a purpose to punctuate the end of a two-century run of life and activity here by means of a fitting home-coming and historical celebration next spring.

He has chosen for the first chapter the title:

"BEAUTIFUL FOR SITUATION"

Womelsdorf is located in the heart of God's country. It is possible that God might have created a finer and a richer landscape than the Lebanon Valley of Pennsylvania, but it is quite certain He never did. At least not in America.

No Portion Barred.

And this assertion does not except any portion of our great country, North and South, East and West, most of which its author has seen. The great prairie states of the Middle West can boast of a rich cereal-producing soil; portions of California are noted for their citrus fruit products and their climatic loveliness and scenic beauty; the Willamette Valley of Oregon is widely and justly famous for its fine Apples, pears, plums and other fruits; the western and central, or lake, segment of New York state, known as the grape belt, is reported by one of its dwellers as "the finest country lying out of doors;" but none of these excel the Lebanon Valley for richness of soil, variety of products, beautiful, undulating landscapes and architectural improvements. The writer knows, for he has seen all the others and has traveled over almost every section of the more than 1,000 square miles included in this valley, which lies between the Blue Mountains on the north and the South Mountain range on the south, an average of 20 miles in width, and stretches from the Schuylkill on the east to the Susquehanna on the west, a distance of 54 miles.

Within this domain are included the western half of Berks, all of Lebanon and the greater portion of Dauphin counties.

* Written in 1922.

Sebastian Pisas (Latin for Fisher)

tines of New York Government,——settlement is about 50 miles from Kingston or Esopus, on Hudson River. A certain German of the Palatinato, named Conradt Wyser (the elder) who was with thee at Ruscomb or London in the year 1723, treating about Lands, received a few Lines from thee at Lond. wrote from Ruscomb, wch only shew that you had talked together about somewhat, but mention not so much as the word Land. A friend of his also made affidavit about some words that passed between the Mother and Wyser concerning Land here. From these, that fellow has had the assurance to pretend a power from you to Sell Lands, and thereupon made an agreement with several People for parcels of those rich Tracts I have mentioned, upon which they have proceeded to purchase Rights of the Indians at excessive prices. Being informed of this, I did what lay in my power to make the People sensible of the cheat, that their Purchases of the Indians were against our Laws, and that their agreement with Wyser was of no validity. . . . .

. . We the Trustees, coming about ten days since to the knowledge of this, to prevent, as far as we could, such irregular practices resolved to lay the nephew William's Rights to these Lands and have actually sent up the Surveyor Genl. with two others. . ."

There is also another letter extant from said James Logan to this elder Conrad Weiser, dated June 8, 1727 warning him against his project of procuring a Palatine settlement on the Delaware River and praying him to "lett common sense and Honesty so far prevail (. . . . so as to) prevent further trouble and confusion."

It is doubtless this interference of the Provincial Secretary which turned the bulk of the Schoharie immigrants and settlers to the Tulpehocken, instead of the Delaware country, to Berks, instead of Monroe and Pike counties of Pennsylvania. The Colonial Records of our State (Vol. 3, p. 341) record the fact that William Keith, when Governor of the Colony visited Albany at the time of the Palatine's distress and gave them encouragement to come to this Colony. In keeping with this we find the following petition, addressed by our immigrants to his excellency, shortly after their settlement in this Province:

"To his Excellency, William Keith, Baronet, Governor of Pennsylvania, etc., etc., the Honorable Council.

"The petition of us, the subscribers, being thirty-three families in number at present inhabiting Tulpehocken Creek.

"Humbly Sheweth.

"That your petitioners being natives of Germany, about fifteen years ago, were by the great goodness and royal bounty of her late Majesty, Queen Anne, relieved from the hardships which they then suffered in Europe, and were transported into the Colony of New York, where they settled. But the families increasing, being in that Government confined to the scanty allowance of ten acres of land to each family, whereon they could not well subsist. Your petitioners being informed of the kind reception which their countrymen usually meet with in the Province of Pennsylvania, and hoping they might, with what substance they had, acquire larger settlements in that Province, did last year (in the spring of 1723), leave their settlements in New York Government, and come with their families into this province, where, upon their arrival they applied themselves to His Excellency the Governor, who, of his great goodness, permitted them to inhabit upon Tulpehocken Creek (being the farthest inhabited part of the Province northwest of Philadelphia) on condition that they should make full satisfaction to the proprietor, or his agents, for such lands as should be allotted to them, when they were ready to receive the same. And now your petitioners, understanding that some gentlemen, agents of the proprietor, have ample power to dispose of lands in this Province; And we, your petitioners, being willing and ready to purchase, do humbly beseech your Excellency and Council to recommend us to the favorable usage of the proprietor's agents, that upon paying the usual prices for lands at such distance from Philadelphia, we may have sufficient rights and titles made to us for such lands as we shall have occasion to buy, that our children may have some settlement to depend on hereafter, and by your authority we may be freed from the demands of the Indians of that part of the country, who pretend a right hereto. And we humbly beg leave to inform your Excellency and Council, that there are fifty families more who, if they may be admitted upon the same conditions, are desirous to come and settle with us. We hope for your favorable answer to this our humble request, and as in duty bound shall ever pray, etc., etc. *Johannes Yans, Peter Ritt (Rieth), Conrad Schitz (Sheets), Paltus Unsf, Toritine Serbo (Zerbe), Josap Sab, Jorge Ritt (Rieth), Johannes Claes Shaver (Schaeffer), Jo. Hamelar Ritt (Rieth), Antonis Sharb (Scharff), Johan Peter Pucht, Jocham Michael Cricht (Christ?), Sebastian Pisas (Latin for Fisher), Andrew Falborn (Walborn), Godfreyt Filler (Fidler).

Thus the Palatines came in larger numbers to these fair lands by the Tulpehocken. Led by friendly Indian guides they made their slow and lengthy journeys down the Susquehanna, through forests and by rocky bluffs and amid much hardship but great heroism and lofty determination, they floated and travelled afoot or on horseback past where now the flourishing cities of Binghamton and Oswego, N. Y., and those of Pittston, Wilkes-Barre, Danville, Sunbury (then the Indian village of Shamokin), Harrisburg (then the outpost home of that Scotch-Irish Indian trader and ferry-man John Harris), of Pennsylvania, down to where the Swatara empties its waters into this mid-state stream of Pennsylvania, where now Middletown with its busy mills and factories is located, where they changed their course and came eastward to their destination and goal

Pennsylvania

■ Pennsylvania State Archives, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. The original records of the published Pennsylvania Archives series are here, fully indexed. The Pennsylvania State Archives' holdings are named and listed in 79 record groups, each with a link to an explanatory page. Go to the "Record Groups" webpage at: www.phmc.state.pa.us/bah/dam/rg/index.htm In addition, an ambitious project to scan images and index original records is well under way. The first set of records are mostly military name lists, including a card file for every Pennsylvania soldier of the Civil War. The new digital archives is called ARIAS (Archives Records Information Access System). Visit the ARIAS webpage at: www.digitalarchives.state.pa.us/

■ Historical Society of Pennsylvania Library, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Original records of early Quakers, Germans, Scotch-Irish, and other colonial settlers in Penn's colonies. An excellent place to locate the early settlers of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware. Go to the "Family History & Genealogy" webpage at: www.hsp.org/default.aspx?id=122

■ State Library of Pennsylvania, Genealogy and Local History Collection, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. A great genealogy/local history section. For a review of its holdings go to the "Collections" webpage at: www.statelibrary.state.pa.us/libraries/taxonomy/taxonomy.asp?DLN=1246. Click on "Genealogy/Local History."

■ Germantown Historical Society, Library and Archives, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Historical and genealogical coverage is excellent for the colonial period. Virtually every Palatine German immigrant to Pennsylvania can be identified in this collection. For the colonial period, the materials relate not only to Germans, but Welsh Quakers and Scotch-Irish immigrants. For a look at the resources, go to the "Library and Archives" webpage at: www.germantownhistory.org/library.html

■ Library and Archives of the Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania, Senator John Heinz Pittsburgh Regional History Center, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. A huge genealogical collection, covering western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio. Go to the "Research Guides" webpage at: http://library.pghhistory.org/Research_Guides.asp

A sketch or narrative of the Adam Fisher family, who were the ancestors of all the fishers and relatives assembled here today. This dates back to the year 1819 when Adam Fisher purchased 200 acres of land from Michael Roush and Elizabeth his wife in Mason County then Virginia, for the sum of $100.00. This track of land was, and is still known as the Fisher farm in the Upper Flats. Then again he laid a patent on 700 acres of land September 30, 1837 and the year following he purchased an 80 acre tract for $125.00 adjoining the 200 acre tract on October 22, 1838. So it appears that the subject of this sketch made at least three trips across the Alleghenny Mountains, before emigrating westward with his family. This family consisted of Adam Fisher and Catharine his wife seven sons and three daughters, Namely: Joseph, William, Polly, David, Katie, Jacob, Susan, Harvey, Geo. Washington and Henry. They possibly made settlement in Mason County in 1841 as the writer of this sketch has heard his father say repeatedly that he was 18 years old when settlement was made. Urgent business of some description within a very few years demanded that some one of the family cross the mountains back over into Rockingham County where they formerly lived. This task fell on Henry the youngest son who made the trip on horse back. You must bear in mind that there were no roads in those days like there are today, as the country was in a primeval state and no roads funds to maintain or keep them up. People simply went through the country from one settlement to another cutting out the under brush and blazing trees by the way side, to keep from getting lost, which were afterwards used for passage ways in those days. The writer has been told that at the time this land was purchased spoken of above, that the same money would have paid for the same amount of land on the Ohio river bottom not more than six or eight miles distant, as at that time fever and ague seemed to be an epidemic along those great bottoms which are now worth from 150 to 200 dollars per acre. Some time after the patent was laid on the 700 acre tract spoken of above, it was conveyed by Adam Fisher and Catharine his wife to two of their sons namely: Joseph and Henry who held it undivided for a number of years. At or about this time Andrew Heelper and Hannah his wife and family emigrated from Allegheny County, Pennsylvania to Chester in Meigs County, Ohio, which County bordered on the Ohio river just across the river from Mason County, Virginia. This family consisted of the parents five daughters and one son namely: Bettie, Fannie, Jacob, Rachel, Mary Jane and Clarisa. Within a short time this family left Meigs County, Ohio and settled in Mason County, Virginia some two and one half or three miles south and east of the Adam Fisher family and it was there that they set up a loom and wove double coverlits for people all over that County. While the husband was weaving the wife was carding out rolls with leather cards filled with fine steel teeth and spinning yarn on a big wheel out of wool to weave into cloth such as linsey, jeans and flannel to make garments for their family. The good wife in those days even spun the thread out of flax fiber to do the sewing with. This was spun on a little wheel run with a treadle. On November 26, 1846 Henry Fisher and Mary Jane Helfer were united in marriage and took up their abode on Potter creek which meanders through the 700 acre tract, which he and his brother had conveyed to them by their father. They moved into a log house about twenty feet square with a door in one side and a small window in the opposite side and a fire place in one end three and one half or four feet wide for the purpose of burning wood. The opening for this fire place was made by cutting out several logs. The fire place and chimney were built on the outside connected with split-puncheons to the opening where the logs were taken out built up 6 or 7 feet or to top of opening and lined with flag rock up to chimney. Chimney was built out of split sticks about the width of a lath but somewhat thicker laid up in mortar made of mud and wheat chaff. The throat or opening of the chimney was about three feet by fifteen inches and extended above the roof. There was a very respectable looking ladder made out of lumber about eight inches wide in the north east corner of the room that rested on a loose floor of the garret at the top. This was used for ascending and descending to where the family of boys had headquarters for sleeping. Just stop and think of a family of ten boys and four girls all being born and mostly reared in a house of this description. In the throat of the chimney was placed a big pole on which trammels were hung with hooks for the purpose of hanging cooking utensils on over fire to get a quick meal, or cook a pot of beans, potatoes or cabbage. Corn pone was usually backed in a big deep skillet or oven with a lid that fit on the top with rim on outer edge sufficient to hold several shovel full of hot or live coals for the purpose of producing the required heat, while at the same time the oven was placed on live coals and hot embers, before the dough was placed in it. At least four of the older boys were sent to subscription schools and were started on the educational route before the free schools came into vogue or prominence. Shortly afterward, the war broke out between the north and south in which our oldest brother enlisted in the northern army which was in 1863 and remained until close of the war. A while after the close of the he went to Pennsylvania and worked at carpenter work and became quite a mechanic. After coming back home he laid off and built one of the largest frame barns in that section of the country for our father. After this he and brother H. W. that is now present worked together at the trade taking contracts and putting up buildings. The next of the boys to learn a trade was brother C.B. who learned the shoemaker's trade and followed it for years, becoming very profecient at it. In the seventies Bros. H. W and J.H. advanced or enough educationally to teach in our public schools in the county, and within a few years J. T. and D. H. were employed as teachers followed by Bros. Jos. H. John H. and G. M. Bro. R. M. who is present as also a mechanic in leather building. In 1886 and 1887 J. T. took a course of two years learing the secrets connected with the successful and scientific operations on all kinds of stock; and since has taken a correspondence course in Veterinary science and Dentistry carrying a diploma in each. Bro. C. B. departed this life July 7, 1918 at the age of 68 yrs 4 mos & 22 da being the first death in the family of children. Next to depart was Bro. H. M. who departed this life December 16, 1923 at the age of 76 yrs 8 mos 20 da and then Bro. Joseph passed away February 5, 1924 at the age of 66 yrs 9 mos and 20 days. The old home place was sold at public auction by H. M. Duffy for $4225 to Bro. John H. who is present today. Written by J. T. Fisher the fifth by.

This little cabin was built to represent an old log cabin that was built on the waters of Potter creek an affluent of Old Town creek, that empties into the Ohio river, a few miles above Point Pleasant, W. Va. This old log cabin herein spoken of, was built and possibly occupied by others before Henry and Mary J. Fisher his wife located there; as there is evidence which leads to that belief. For instance there was a piece of land cleared out on the creek bottom below the house that always went by the name of the Salmon Clearing.
The old log cabin spoken of above; was erected on a plat of warranted land that consisted of 700 acres. This warrant was executed by Joseph and Henry Fisher the sons of Adam Fisher and remained undivided for a number of years. Henry Fisher and Mary Jane his wife possibly located some time during the year 1846 in the old log cabin, that this represents.
They remained at this home stead about eleven years and moved over on the waters of Ten mile creek, so as to be handy to the work of running a Sash saw Mill owned by the said Henry Fisher and his Brother-in-law William Robinson. Just at this time when the business seemed to be a flourishing proposition Uncle Bill and the head sawyer rolled a long springy log on the blocks to saw into lumber by the up and down

After the head sawyer started the saw and sawed part way through the log, it become so springy that Uncle Bill placed a fry under the log and placed his weight on the fry overlooking it being a precarious and hazardous act; so much so, that when the carriage brought the log up to the fry the saw caught the end of the fry with such force as to throw Uncle Bill head first up against the roof which resulted in the breaking of his neck. This calamity was the downfall of every thing calculated to be of interest in the Saw Mill business; and every thing went to rack. This misfortune was the cause of our moving back to the little old log house on Potter creek. By the way potter creek got its name in and through one Henry Fisher who built a potter house farther up on the creek, and made and burnt pottery of various kinds. Before moving over on to Tenmile creek our family possibly consisted of seven A. H, H. W, C. B, J. H, J. T, D. H, and Hannah C, of whom the oldest A. H. was born at his Grand Pap Helpers and all of the rest were born in the old log house, the youngest Clarisa L, was born Dec. 2nd and we moved into the new house on Dec. 23rd 1870. These above statements can be varified by Bro. J. H. J. T. and Sister Louvema Fowler. Others may have a different version of this but it will be hearsay.

A sketch or narrative of our ancestors the Fishers and Helfers. In an early day our grandfather Adam Fisher was united in marriage to Catharin Snider possibly in Rockingham County, Virginia. To this union were born ten children, William, Joseph, Polly, David, Susanna, Katie, Jacob, Harvey, George H. and Henry our father. William was united in marriage to Katie Hill and raised a family of four children viz. William, Catharine, John and Eliza. Joseph married Susan Partlow and raised a family of five children viz. Jacob, Mary Ann, Lucy Ann, Thomas H. and Martha Ann. Polly married Jonas Hill and raised a family of five boys, David, John, Jacob, George and Andrew. Some time after the birth of Andrew their youngest son aunt Polly became a widow and was remarried to a man by the name of Crumbaker to this union was born a daughter Emily. David married a Nancy Roush first and raised a family of eleven children viz. Matison, George, Mary, Lydia, Sarah, Bell, Kate, Henry, Daniel, Ann and Peter. After the birth of Peter the eleventh child uncle David was left a widower by the death of aunt Nancy. Some time later he remarried a sister to our mother Rachel Helfer and raised a second family of six children viz. David H. Clarissa Jane, Hannah Elizabeth, Adam, Mack and Emma. In 1910 the writer of this sketch had the pleasure of meeting the most of the above named family at David H. Fisher's home at a Reunion near Sumner, Illinois when on his way back from W. Va., to Argonia, Kansas. Having stopped at Olney Illinois I hunted up Cousins Dan, Henry and Ann that lived in the city of Olney at that time. During the day in our traveling over the city sight seeing this reunion was planned which proved to be the time of my life as I had an anxiety to meet all those that were there. A three seater two horse rig was engaged to make the trip of nine miles from Olney to David H's. On this occasion we were a little early and made our appearance before the crowd began to gather in. It was our happy lot to see them coming in from every direction, in wagons buggies and a foot all being the possessors of well filled baskets for the occasion. The table was loaded down with every thing good including plenty of ice cream. A recent letter tells me that all of this family have passed away save five only viz. Daniel, David H. Adam, Hannah and Emma.

Facts pointed out by questions in the Henry and Mary Jane Fisher family from the oldest to the youngest. First why was A. H. named Andrew Harvey? Answer, he was named Andrew in honor of his Grand Pap Helfer on his mothers side and Harvey was in honor of his uncle Harvey Fisher a Bro. of his father.

Second. why was Henry Ett. so named? His first name Henry, was in honor of his father Henry and the second name Ett was in honor of the maiden name of his grand mother Helfer on his mothers side.

Third. why was Charles Buzzillard so named? He was so named in honor of a miller at Point Pleasant W. Va. Who ran a flouring mill there for a number of years.

Fourth. Why was J. W. named; Jacob William? He was named Jacob in honor of his fathers brother Jacob Fisher and William in honor of another Bro. of his father William Fisher.

Fifth. Why was James Thomas so named? He was named in honor of two neighbors James Somerville and his father Thomas Somerville.

Sixth. Why was D. W. so named? He was named David in honor of his uncle David Fisher a brother of his fathers and Washington another brother of his father, George Washington Fisher.

Seventh. Why was Hannah Catharine so named? She was named Hannah in honor of he grand mother Hannah Helfer and Catharine in honor of her grand mother on her fathers side.
Eighth. Why was Joseph Adam so named? He was named Joseph in honor of a brother of his father Joseph Fisher, and Adam in honor of his grand Father Fisher whose name was Adam.
Ninth. Why was Robert More so named? He was named in honor of a family of Mores that were decendents of the Helfer family Tenth. Why was Mary Louisa so named? She was given her first name Mary in honor of her mothers first name Mary. and Louisa Knight the wife of James L. Knight.
Eleventh. Why was John Allen so named? He was named John Allen in honor of John Allen Mason The Captain of Company G. the 13th Virginia Ridgment of the Civil War.
Twelfth. Why was Emma Frances so named? She was named Emma in honor of a first cousin Emma Proper a daughter of aunt Fannie Proper and also her aunt Frances Proper.

Thirteenth. Why was George Matison so named? He was named George in honor of a first Cousin George Fisher a son of uncle David Fisher and he was named Matison in honor of the Eldest son of uncle David Fisher.

Fourteenth. Why was Clarisa Louvenia so named? She was named Clarisa in honor of Aunt Clarisa a Sister of our Mothers and Louvenia in honor of a daughter of aunt Fannie Proper or Louvenia Proper.

The foregoing was computed and written from a glimpse of statements made to me by our Mother from small boyhood days; up to almost manhood.

The Stick together Families.

1. The stick together families are happier by far
Than the brothers and the sisters who take seperate highways are.
The gladdest people living are wholesome folks who make
A circle at the fireside that no power but death can break
And the finest of conventions ever held beneath the sun
Are the little family gatherings when the busy day is done.

2. There are rich, there are poor folk, who imagine they are wise.
And therre quick to shatter all the little family ties.
Each goes searching after pleasure in his selected way
But it's bitterness they harvest, and it's empty joy they find
For the children that are wisest are the stick together kind

Biographical Data About The Palatines Who Came to the Tulpehocken Valley in the Early Part of the 18th Century

By CHARLES ADAM FISHER

Of the fifteen heads of Palatine families who came to the Tulpehocken Region of Berks County, Pennsylvania, from the colony of New York, Schoharie Valley region, prior to May 13, 1723, only six can be recognized as having been heads of families at the time of their departure from Rotterdam, Holland, the port of departure for emigrants from the head of the Rhine River Valley, to England, during the summer of 1709. These were John Godfrey Feidler (Fidler), Sebastian Fisher, John Leonard Ried, Anthony Shadt, Conrad Sheetz, and John Claus (supposedly John Nicholas) Shaffer. The others were supposedly children of immigrants, born in Europe, on the ocean, or in this country. Those born at sea or in Europe, were not honored with having their names inscribed on the ship lists, and in some instances the names of the descendants of these heads of families are guesswork, based on elimination of possible contrary facts. Below is given what the compiler has been able to glean from the records now available, plus some seemingly fit conjectures, based on a rather long study of the early settlers of the Tulpehocken section.

John Baltzer Anspach arrived in the Tulpehocken section before May 13, 1723. On Jan. 10, 1725, his name appeared on the first tax list compiled for that section, and around 1732, he owned a tract of land about a half mile north of the present Christ (Tulpehocken) Lutheran Church, west of Stouchsburg, Pa. In 1710, and in 1712, Baltzer and wife, were listed on Governor Hunter's Ration Lists in the colony of New York. In 1711, they lived in the village of Hunterstown on the Livingston Manor on the east side of the Hudson River. In the same year, he served as a Private in Captain John Peter Kneskern's Company of the Palatine Volunteers in the Expedition against Canada, in Queen Anne's War. Other early Tulpehocken settlers served in this expedition. Baltzer's wife was named Anna Maria ——. In the Baptismal Records of Rev. Kocherthal we find that John Peter, son of John Baltzer and Anna Maria Anspach was born on Feb. 25, 1715, and baptized two days later. The baptismal sponsor was John Peter Smith. In the same records we find that Maria Barbara, daughter of the above pair, was born on Jan. 28, 1719, and baptized by Rev. Kocherthal on Feb. 1, same year.

John Michael Christ came to the Tulpehocken region before May 13, 1723. His name does not seem to appear on earlier or later lists and for that reason the compiler believes that his name was not "Christ", but that someone in deciphering the poor penmanship of early lists, made a mistake. No one of this name was a land owner in the Tulpehocken region around 1723.

John Godfrey Fidler (Feidler) came to the Tulpehocken region before May 13, 1723. It is believed that he was an immigrant, but no ship list contains his name. On Jan. 10, 1725, his name appeared on the first tax list compiled for that section. It is believed that he was married before 1710, because in that year and in 1712, he was the head of a family of two persons on Governor Hunter's Ration List, and it was stated that he resided on the west side of the Hudson River. On June 7, 1717, he and wife were sponsors at the baptism of John Godfrey, son of John Peter and Elizabeth Barbara Knirstenberg, somewhere in the Hudson Valley, according to the Kocherthal records.

Sebastian Fischer (Fisher) came to the Tulpehocken region before May 13, 1723. He and wife, Susanna, and their two children, sailed for London, England, from Rotterdam, Holland, July 28, 1709. He and hundreds of other Palatine heads of families left England during the early part of April, 1710, and arrived at New York Harbor on June 13th or 14th. During the fall of that year, Sebastian, his wife, and one child, were receiving subsistence from Governor Hunter of New York. This indicates that one of the two children, reported earlier, died. In 1712, two adults and a child were Below is given what the compiler has been able to glean from the records now available, plus some seemingly fit conjectures, based on a rather long study of the early settlers of the Tulpehocken section.

John Sebastian Ahrendt arrived in the Tulpehocken section before May 13, 1723. On Jan. 10, 1723, his name appeared on the first tax list compiled for that section, and around 1732, he owned a tract of land about a half mile north of the present Center (Tulpehocken) Lutheran Church, west of Stouchsburg, Pa. In 1710 and in 1712, Ahrendt and wife, were listed on Governor Hunter's Rolls Lists in the colony of New York. In 1713, they lived in the village of Hunterstown on the Livingston Manor on the east side of the Hudson River. In the same year, he served as a Private in Captain John Peter Kuykendall's Company of the Palatine Volunteers in the Expedition against Canada, in Queen Anne's War. Other early Tulpehocken settlers served in this expedition. Ahrendt's wife was named Anna Maria ——. In the Highland Records of New Rochelle we find that John Peter, son of John Ahrendt and Anna Maria Ahrendt, was born on Feb. 23, 1713, was John Peter Smith. In the same records we find that Maria Barbara, daughter of the above pair, was born on Jan. 26, 1719, and baptized in New Rochelle that day. It is some year.

John Ahrendt, Citizen, came to the Tulpehocken region before May 13, 1723. He seems does not seem to appear as settler or late lists and for that reason the compiler believes that his name was not "Conrad", but that someone or deciphering the poor penmanship of early lists made a mistake. No one of this name was a land owner in the Tulpehocken region around 1722.

On June 7, 1732, he and wife were sponsors at the baptism of John Godfrey, son of John Peter and Elizabeth Barbara Kuykendall, ancestors in the Hudson Valley, according to the Kipe Bible records.

Sebastian Fisher (Fischer) came to the Tulpehocken region before May 13, 1723. He and wife, Susanna, and their two children, arrived in London, England, from Rotterdam, Holland, July 28, 1709. His and his wife's of other Palatine heads at London left England during the early part of April, 1710, and arrived in New York Harbor on June 14th or 15th. During the fall of that year, Sebastian, his wife, and one child, were receiving subsistence from Governor Hunter of New York. This indicates that one of the two children, reported born at sea, was born in 1709 or early part of 1710.

John Leonard Kind came to the Tulpehocken region before May 13, 1723. On Jan. 10, 1723, his name appeared on the first tax list compiled for that section. In 1732, he owned a tract of land about a half mile north of the present Center (Tulpehocken) Lutheran Church, west of Stouchsburg, Pa. In 1710 and in 1712, Kind and wife, were listed on Governor Hunter's Rolls Lists in the colony of New York. In 1713, they lived in the village of Hunterstown on the Livingston Manor on the east side of the Hudson River. In the same year, he served as a Private in Captain John Peter Kuykendall's Company of the Palatine Volunteers in the Expedition against Canada, in Queen Anne's War. Other early Tulpehocken settlers served in this expedition. Kind's wife was named Anna Maria ——. In the Highland Records of New Rochelle we find that John Peter, son of John Kind and Anna Maria Kind, was born on Feb. 23, 1713, was John Peter Smith. In the same records we find that Maria Barbara, daughter of the above pair, was born on Jan. 26, 1719, and baptized in New Rochelle that day. It is some year.

* * * *

Andrew Shaw, Citizen, came to the Tulpehocken region before May 13, 1723. He does not seem to appear as settler or late lists and for that reason the compiler believes that his name was not "Conrad", but that someone in deciphering the poor penmanship of early lists made a mistake. No one of this name was a land owner in the Tulpehocken region around 1722.

* * * *

John Conrad Sheets (Sheetes) came to the Tulpehocken region before May 13, 1723. It is believed that he was an immigrant but no ship list contains his name. On Jan. 10, 1723, his name appeared on the first tax list compiled for that section. It is believed that he was married before 1710, because in that year and in 1712, he was the head of a family of two persons on Governor Hunter's Rolls Lists and it was stated that he resided on the west side of the Hudson River. On June 7, 1732, he and wife were sponsors at the baptism of John Godfrey, son of John Peter and Elizabeth Barbara Kuykendall, ancestors in the Hudson Valley, according to the Kipe Bible records.

John Claus (Nicholas) Shaffer came to the Tulpehocken region before May 13, 1723. It is believed that he was an immigrant but no ship list contains his name. On Jan. 10, 1723, his name appeared on the first tax list compiled for that section. The Tulpehocken Region from an old Map of Pennsylvania, made in London in 1775. It was humbly inscribed to Thomas Penn and Richard Penn, Esquires; and was "laid down from actual surveys, and chiefly from the late Map of W. Scull published in 1770". Courtesy of Louis J. Heizmann.

still receiving rations. In 1711, Sebastian was a Private in Captain Hartman Winedecker's Company of Palatine Volunteers in the Expedition against Canada in Queen Ann's War. Prior to 1717, Sebastian, wife, and three children, lived at Gerlachsdorf in the Schoharie Valley of New York. This village no longer exists, but lay about two miles south of the present village of Central Bridge, and about two miles north of the present Old Fort Museum, which is located on or near the former village of Foxtown. In 1711, Sebastian lived at Annsburg, one of the four Palatine villages (or camps) on the Livingston Manor, located on the east side of the Hudson River, some fifty or sixty miles southeast of the village of Gerlachsdorf. The story has often been told how the first Palatines who came to Pennsylvania, cut a road through the forest from the Schoharie Valley to the Susquehanna Valley, built boats and rafts, floated their goods down the Susquehanna to the mouth of the Swatara Creek, ascended that creek, crossed the watershed into the Tulpehocken Valley, some seventeen miles northwest of Reading, where they settled in the spring of 1723. The known children of Sebastian and his wife were: Lawrence (probably born in Germany), Peter, born, Oct. 4, 1714 (according to the Second Record Book of the Schoharie Lutheran Church, Schoharie County, N. Y., located some twelve miles from Berne, Albany County, where it is said the Fishers lived for a time), John Jacob, born about 1720, and Ann Elizabeth, born about 1722. George Ulrich Fisher may also have been a son. Sebastian's name was on the first tax list compiled for the Tulpehocken section on January 10, 1725; it also appears on petitions in the years 1725, and 1727. Because he seems to prefer doing things out of the ordinary, he usually signed his name in some form of the Latin, giving rise to the belief that he may have had schooling beyond the average for that time and place. He was a Lutheran, and in 1727, or before, assisted in the founding of the Ried's Lutheran Church, then located some two miles east of the present town of Stouchsburg, Pa. Later, because of the influx of the Moravian influence in that church, he and about 160 other members of it, withdrew from Ried's Church, and formed the Christ (Tulpehocken) Lutheran Church in 1743. This church is located about a mile southwest of Stouchsburg. Sebastian's name was at the head of the list of the signers of the constitution of the new church. He, Christian Lauer, and George Unruh, each gave five acres from their farms for cemetery and church purposes. Tradition says that Peter, son of Sebastian, married Anna Dorothea Ball, in Albany or Schoharie County, N. Y., January 4, 1750. John Jacob, married Mary Elizabeth, daughter of John Frederick, in what is now Berks County, Pa., Dec. 9, 1743. Ann Elizabeth, married John Anspach (probably a son of Baltzer Anspach) in Berks County in 1744. Sebastian and Lawrence both owned land in what is today Marion Township, Berks County. John Jacob owned land and died in what was then Tulpehocken Township, Berks County, in 1803. The compiler has never been able to find a record of the death of Sebastian, or his son, Lawrence, in Pennsylvania, and believes that Sebastian and his sons Lawrence and Peter may have returned to New York about the year 1745.

* * * * *

JOHN LANTZ came to the Tulpehocken Region before May 13, 1723. No further record concerning the name can be found, and the compiler believes that the name really was "John Kantz," which in German was spelled Kuntz and Cons. Difficulty in deciphering the names of these people, because of the poor penmanship, may have led to a confusion. "John Cons" was listed on the first tax list for that section which was compiled on Jan. 10, 1725. Later lists do not seem to have either Lantz, Kantz, Kuntz, or Cons. The Kantz family at an early date spread over Berks, Lebanon, and Lancaster Counties.

* * * * *

JOHN PETER PACHT came to the Tulpehocken region before May 13, 1723. Later lists do not contain the name, or one similar to it, nor do earlier lists carry the name. Here again there may have been a mistake in deciphering the name, due to the poor penmanship of the early writers. No one named Pacht owned any land in the section around the year 1732.

* * * * *

GEORGE RIED came to the Tulpehocken region before May 13, 1723. Tradition has it that he was a brother of Casper Ried. Some think he may have been the son of John George, and Anna Catherine Ried, immigrants. On Jan. 10, 1725, his name appeared on the first tax list compiled for the Tulpehocken rate. The records of Rev. Joshua Kocherthal state that on Jan. 22, 1716, John George Reed and Anna Margaret Shaffer (or Schaester) were sponsors at the baptism of John George, son of John and Elizabeth Moor, somewhere in the Hudson Valley. The child was born on Jan. 19th, 1716. About 1732, George owned a tract of land about a half mile north of the present Tulpehocken Reformed Church, west of Stouchsburg, Pa.

It was this activity and missionary enterprise, especially of the Dunkers, described at length in the Ephrata "Chronicle," which led the Reformed people to rally around their leaders with the determination to stem, if possible, the flood of sectarianism, which was sweeping over the land.

They realized that the thing for them to do was to erect a Church for the glory of God, where they might worship God and have His divine blessing and enjoy the freedom for which they had been struggling for centuries. Therefore, by their united efforts, these various sects were prevented from coming into the territory of this congregation.

Grotius, who was well informed as to the conditions of Europe, says that a hundred thousand heretics were put to death in the Netherlands under the edicts of Charles V. Such was the religious record of this people. They were divided into seventeen provinces; this explains the numerous sects found in eastern Pennsylvania, as each province united under their faith because the old form of government was largely destroyed.

When the Reformation first broke out, the Reformers of the Low Countries inclined to the theology of Luther. But in time they took up with the teachings of Calvin, and Calvinism in all its fullness was adopted as the creed of the Reformed Church. It is to this doctrine that the free countries owe their liberty, and the United States are the first fruition.

It was the Reformed Church of Holland which first planted Presbyterianism in the new world. Subsequently, many adherents of the Reformed faith emigrated to America. Those from the Continent, while retaining the general epithet of the Reformed, prefixed adjectives to indicate their origin; hence the Dutch Reformed, the French Reformed, and the German Reformed Churches; scattered representatives of the Swiss Reformed also were not wanting. From 1730 to 1792 the German Reformed churches, mostly derived from the Palatinate, placed themselves under the Classis of Amsterdam. To Amsterdam, indeed, all the American Churches that were of Continental origin turned for men and money.

The Reformed Church in the United States, while it recognizes all evangelical Christians as brethren, has been noted for conservatism in doctrine, or else this congregation could not have been true to its doctrine for a period of some twenty years without a regular minister; this proves that the early settlers were well grounded in their faith.

The elders and deacons are chosen only for two years, although they may be re elected; but the elder retains the honor of his office for life, and may at any time, although not in the Consistory, become a delegate to the Synods of the Church. The acting Consistory may call together all former elders as a Great Consistory for consultation on important matters. Such a meeting was held at the Cacoosing Church, August 29, 1743. The same is found in Dr. Good's "History of the Reformed Church in the United States," page 240.

In order to avoid neglecting any part of divine truth, ministers are required to explain the system of doctrine contained in the Heidelberg Catechism to the youth. The system presents the fact and the cause of man's misery, the method of redemption and the gratitude which is due to God therefor, constructed on sush a basis and emphasizing the comforts to be derived from all the great facts of Christianity, the Heidelberg Catechism is one to which evangelical Christians of all creeds could subscribe.

The difficulties that encompassed the work of establishing this organization had appeared well nigh insurmountable when Boehm and Weiss began their labor among them. The Germans were poor, and had brought with them from their fatherland their doctrines. Unfamiliar with the language of their adopted country, they were slow to adopt the methods of their neighbors, and in later days a change in language, accompanied by dissension and conflict, is not surprising. These difficulties, however, were eventually overcome, as the remarkable growth of the Church shows.

Tulpehocken.

The territory called Tulpehocken was not confined to the present limits of Tulpehocken and Upper Tulpehocken, but it embraced all the land along the Tulpehocken creek and up to the Blue Mountains, except Bern and a few other townships west of the Schuylkill. The place in which most of the historical events transpired are now comprehended in Heidelberg, Marion, Tulpehocken and Bethel. The most important meetings and conference took place at Conrad Weiser's farm.

The settlers spread rapidly over the county and, since part of the now Lebanon valley was looked upon as a promised land and was one of the most noted places in the county at this time for the fertility of the soil and its desirableness for a habitation, it was natural for the Palatines to have a strong inclination to settle there.

The Indians never brought charges of fraud and dishonesty against the Palatines, and the Germans always treated the Indians with strict adherence to honesty and never took advantage of them, and for this reason there is no record of an Indian massacre in this section, which speaks remarkably well for the early settlers and their peaceable disposition.

The secretary produced a number of deeds, in one of which Sassoonan signed a release of "all the land situated between the two rivers, Delaware and the Susquehanna, from Duck creek (in Delaware) to the mountains on this side of the Lechay (Lehigh). This territory was again covered by a deed given in 1732.

"Sassoonan (Allumapees) said that the land beyond these bounds had never been paid for, that they reached no further than a few miles beyond Oley, but that their lands on the Tulpehocken were seated by the Christians."

"Mr. Logan (the secretary) answered that he understood at the time the deed was drawn and since that Lechay hills or mountains stretched away from a little below Lechay or fork of the Delaware to those hills on the Susquehanna that lie about ten miles above Paxton. Mr. Farmer said those hills passed from Lechay a few miles above Oley, and reached no further, and that Tulpehocken lands lie beyond them."

It was at length conceded that the land in Tulpehocken still belonged to the Indians and it was at once conceded that the Palatines would not have settled without the consent or invitation of some man who held a position in the Provincial Council. After a number of animated speeches to discover on whom lay the responsibility of inviting the Palatines to settle on land still in the possession of the Delaware, James Logan, a member of Council, said that he was aware that Palatines had settled there and how they came there he was about to disclose. He then presented a petition directed to His Excellency William Keith, Baronet-Governor of Pennsylvania, and signed by thirty-three families. The petition is as follows:

"That your petitioners are natives of Germany. About fifteen years ago they were by the great goodness and royal bounty of her late Majesty Queen Anne, relieved from the hardships which they then suffered in Europe and were transported into the colony of New York, where they settled But their families increasing and being in that government confined to the scanty allowance of ten acres of land to each family, whereon they could not well subsist. Your petitioners being informed of the kind reception which their countrymen usually met with in the province of Pennsylvania, and hoping with what substance they had, acquire larger settlements in the province, did last year leave their settlements in New York government and came with their families into this province, where upon their arrival they applied themselves to His Excellency, the Governor, who of his great goodness permitted them to inhabit upon Tulpehocken creek, on condition that they should make full satisfaction to the proprietor or his agents for such lands as should be allotted to them when they were ready to receive the same. And now your petitioners, understanding that some gentlemen, agents of the proprietor, have ample powers to dispose of lands in this province. And we, your petitioners, being willing and ready to purchase, do humbly beseech your Excellency and Council to recommend us to the favorable usage of the proprietor's agents, that upon paying the usual prices for lands at such distance from Philadelphia we may have sufficient rights and titles made to us for such land as we have occasion to buy. And we humbly beg leave to inform your Excellency and Council that there are fifty families more who, if they be admitted upon the same conditions, are desirous to come and settle with us. We hope for your favorable answer to this, our humble request, and as in duty bound shall ever pray."

In 1723 thirty-three families of the Germans, having been sorely pressed and wronged, firstly by the Dutch and then by the English, and then finally deprived of their lands and other possessions in Schoharie county, New York, came to Pennsylvania by the Susquehanna and Swatara. They settled near Tulpehocken, about 50 miles west of the Schuylkill.

William Fisher was one of this company and settled in Heidelberg township. He married Gertrude Elizabeth Hain, daughter of George Hain. Peter, son of William Fisher, married Abigail Heckert (afterwards Eckert), and the son Henry married Susannah Ruth on January 4, 1781, and died in Huntingdon, Pa., in 1821.

Peter Fisher and his son Peter were privates in the Revolutionary war, in the company of Capt. John Ludwig (1780), while Henry Fisher served as a private in 1776, in the company of Captain Henry Christ.

Henry Fisher emigrated from Heidelberg to Oley (Berks) in 1791; married to Sarah, daughter of Jacob V. R. Hunter.

The War of the Palatinate (1688-1697).

Louis resolved to attack the Confederates, with no other purpose but to destroy them, hence he hurried a large army into their country and laid waste the entire country. Among the places reduced to ruins were the historic town of Heidelberg and a number of smaller towns. Even fruit trees, vines and crops were destroyed, and a hundred thousand peasants were rendered homeless. This gives us an idea of the terrible suffering and poverty of the people that came to the New World to seek shelter and a place where they might enjoy freedom without persecution from religious fanatics.

"Shepherdstown Men in the Revolutionary War"

Under date of February 5, 1850, the Register then published by Hardy and McAuly at Shepherdstown, Jefferson County, West Virginia, printed the above caption, a lengthy article giving the names of officers and privates who served in the Revolutionary Army from Shepherdstown and its vicinity, then in Berkeley County, but after 1801, in Jefferson County. Their names with rank and memoranda in the said article, appearing as it did sixty years ago, were as follow:

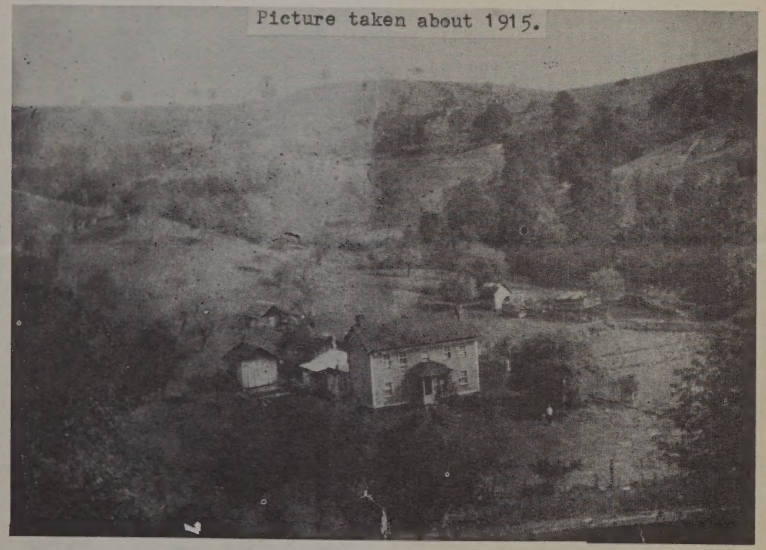
14 AUNTS AND UNCLES

A.H. (Bub) ; H.U. (Utt) ; C.B. (Charles); D.W. (Dave); J.W. (Jake); R.M. (Rob); G.M. (Georgie); J.A. (Johnnie); J.T. (Tom); J.A. (Joe).
Emma F. married Wm. (Billy) Duffy.
Hanna C. (Kate) married Millard Smith.
Mary L. (Louise) married Jim Sam Yeager.
Clarissa Levena (Vena) married John Daniel Fowler.

In 1943, Uncle Tom Fisher and Cousin Charles B. Duffy had a 4 page Fisher Family History mimeographed. It was very complete going to the third and fourth generations. I would like to see it reprinted and made up to date. They did not have the birth dates of all the aunts and uncles so I may not have the above names listed according to age. Uncle Bub was the oldest and my mother, Vena, the youngest.



Picture taken about 1915.

A Ft. Myers Photographer took the above old faded picture and did a remarkable reproduction job. The significant thing about the picture is that the hillsides are clear, having been hand mowed by scythes. This was first done by Grandfather Henry Fisher's 10 sons and later by Uncle Johnnie's 4 sons and all of us cousins who happened to be visiting there during the month of August, just before school. This practice has been abandoned and Clyde still mows the hill tops and as much of the hillside as possible.

Accept these pictures with our compliments and may you have a happy Reunion.

Dear Cousins:

The 8 pictures (Color) I took last September turned out so beautifully that Mildred and I thought all of you Fishers and especially those who have been familiar with this colorful old 400 acre hillside farm throughout the years, would like to see them. This will be done with off-set printing and we hope the color pictures will turn out in black and white satisfactorily. They are of the ancestral home of my Grandparents Henry and Mary Jane Helper Fisher, still in the family and owned by Clyde and Virginia Fisher. They have done a wonderful job of restoring the old home by keeping the original architecture in mind. The house was well preserved after at least 75 years of hard use. I was born in the old log house, now rased, June 19, 1893 and my sister Innez was the first born in the new or present house on August 31, 1895. We hope all of you will be privileged to visit this old home and farm some time.

When Grandfather Henry Fisher died in 1900, Uncle Johnnie Fisher took over the farm and a few years before he passed away, he sold the farm to his son Clyde, who still owns and operates it. The hills still produce abundant blue grass for pasture and Clyde has enough creek bottom land to keep a fine herd of White Face cattle.

None of the Fisher family still living can remember any of our ancestors farther back than my Grandparents Henry and Mary Jane Helper Fisher. All of their off-spring, 14 children including my mother and uncles and aunts, are now deceased. (listed below).Most of my first cousins remember our grandparents and the 14 uncles and aunts.

You may wonder just who is writing you -- I am your Aunt Vena Fowler's son, Roscoe. It is a problem for me to tell which generation I am talking about so let us call Grandparents Henry and Mary Jane Helper Fisher generation #1; my mother Lovena (Fowler), aunts and uncles the second generation and myself and my first cousins the 3rd generation -- not too many of us left. Your 1970 Fisher Reunion President, Dr. Stanley D. Fisher is one of the 4th generation, being a son of first cousin Franklin Fisher and grandson of uncle, Charles.

Last September 1969, my first cousin, Clyde Fisher and I went to the White Church Cemetery, Upper Flats, Mason County, W.Va. expecting to find the grave sites of our Grandparents, Henry and Mary Jane Helper Fisher. Instead, we found the grave site of our Great Grandparents, Andrew and Hannah Helper, parents of our Grandmother, Mary Jane Helper Fisher.

Our long time friends, Lon and Cora (Stewart) Roush who live nearby, assured us that our Grandparents Henry and Mary Jane Helper Fisher were both buried in the Pickens Cemetery about three miles away.

After taking the pictures of the Helper grave, shown on the left, we went to the Pickens Cemetery and took the picture of our Grandparents,Henry and Mary Jane Helper Fisher's burial place, shown below.
We found the White Church Cemetery in fairly good condition. Lon Roush told us that there was a fund available to keep this Cemetery clean but he was unable to get anyone to do it. You can see that the Pickens Cemetery was badly in need of care but we were told that the Cemetery had been mowed for Decoration Day.

Clyde has promised to get his son, Bob, to help him mow and clean this year. We did not learn of any available fund for care of this Cemetery.

14 AUNTS AND UNCLES

A.H. (Bub) ; H.U. (Utt) ; C.B. (Charles); D.W. (Dave); J.W. (Jake); R.M. (Rob); G.M. (Georgie); J.A. (Johnnie); J.T. (Tom); J.A. (Joe).
Emma F. married Wm. (Billy) Duffy.
Hanna C. (Kate) married Millard Smith.
Mary L. (Louise) married Jim Sam Yeager.
Clarissa Levena (Vena) married John Daniel Fowler.

In 1943, Uncle Tom Fisher and Cousin Charles B. Duffy had a 4 page Fisher Family History mimeographed. It was very complete going to the third and fourth generations. I would like to see it reprinted and made up to date. They did not have the birth dates of all the aunts and uncles so I may not have the above names listed according to age. Uncle Bub was the oldest and my mother, Vena, the youngest.

Picture taken about 1915.

A Ft. Myers Photographer took the above old faded picture and did a remarkable reproduction job. The significant thing about the picture is that the hillsides are clear, having been hand mowed by scythes. This was first done by Grandfather Henry Fisher's 10 sons and later by Uncle Johnnie's 4 sons and all of us cousins who happened to be visiting there during the month of August, just before school. This practice has been abandoned and Clyde still mows the hill tops and as much of the hillside as possible.

Accept these pictures with our compliments and may you have a happy Reunion.

Dear Cousins:

The 8 pictures (Color) I took last September turned out so beautifully that Mildred and I thought all of you Fishers and especially those who have been familiar with this colorful old 400 acre hillside farm throughout the years, would like to see them. This will be done with off-set printing and we hope the color pictures will turn out in black and white satisfactorily. They are of the ancestral home of my Grandparents Henry and Mary Jane Helper Fisher, still in the family and owned by Clyde and Virginia Fisher. They have done a wonderful job of restoring the old home by keeping the original architecture in mind. The house was well preserved after at least 75 years of hard use. Chas. B. Duffy, Ponca City, Okla.)

LUDWIG FISHER was born and raised in Germany. He grew to manhood there and one day while strolling thru the Royal Observatory, he chanced to see a deer and shot and killed it. On returning home he related the incident to his father. His father, knowing this to be a crime punishable by penalty of death, prepared his son for the journey to America, took him to the port for sailing, and sent him to Culpepper County, Virginia. Ludwig settled there and in due time made the acquaintence of a lady whom he later married. This union reared a family of five sons.

ADAM FISHER, one of these sons, drifted over the mountains into Rockingham County, Virginia and settled there, where he eventually met and married Catherine Snider. They raised a family of seven sons and three daughters. The sons names were William, Joseph, David, Harvey, Jacob, Washington and Henry (who was the father of J.T.Fisher and his brothers and sisters).

This ADAM FISHER proved to be our grand-father.

In an early day, this family embarked in wagons and teams and made their way to the western part of Virginia and settled in the Upper Flats of Mason County. Shortly after landing there, they purchased a farm. This farm purchased by Adam Fisher was a 200 acre farm, for which he paid $400.; later he purchased an 80 acres adjoining it on the east for $80. He also obtained a patent on a 500 acre place. which he afterward sold to his two sons Joseph, and Henry(our father).

WILLIAM FISHER married a lady from Ohio and raised two daughters and one son. Catherine, the older daughter, married George McDaniel and raised two sons and two daughters; Franklyn and George, the sons, and Frances and Ella, the daughters. He also raised an illegitimate son, who drifted over into Putnam County, Virginia, and married, and raised two daughters and a son. The son J.M.Fisher married and raised a family of five or six sons and fully as many daughters.

(Oct.27, 1943. Several months have been spent in writing letters assembling the above data, and much of it is yet incomplete, due to our inability to get full responses to our inquiries. We regret the many mistakes we know this contains, and it incompleteness in many respects, but we've done the best we could with the material available. May we suggest that someone else each few years hence, bring this history down to date and mimeograph a "new edition thereof." May we in closing offer to Uncle Tom Fisher, on behalf of all of us, our deepest thanks for his untiring efforts in preserving and making available to us the early history of the Fisher Family. Chas. Observe Diamond Wedding Anniversary

Family Gathering At Home of Fishers, Wed Sixty Years

Of wide interest in the city and of supreme interest to Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fisher, 524 West Oklahoma avenue, was the gala celebration held in their home Thursday in observance of their diamond wedding anniversary.

At noon an elaborate luncheon was served to the guests, which included their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. All of their children were able to attend with the exception of a son, Everett Fisher, of Audubon, Minn.

Flowers decorated the home, and other appointments stressed a spring note in table arrangements, with a beautiful bouquet of gladiolus and daisies centering the table which was a gift from Hart's Flower shop. Mrs. John Zook sent them a beautiful orchid hydrangia plant.

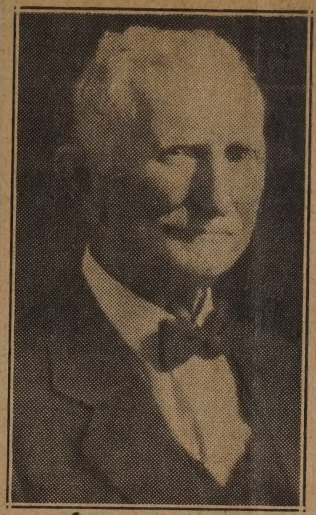
Guests attending the affair presented Mr. and Mrs. Fisher with an electric refrigerator. Those attending included their daughters, Mrs. J. B. Sheets of Blackwell, Mrs. A. F. Bernider of Los Angeles, Calif.; a son, A. A. Fisher, of Wellington, Kans.; and daughters, Mrs. E. R. Walcher of Wichita, Kans., and Mrs. Vertise Banner of Los Angeles, Calif.

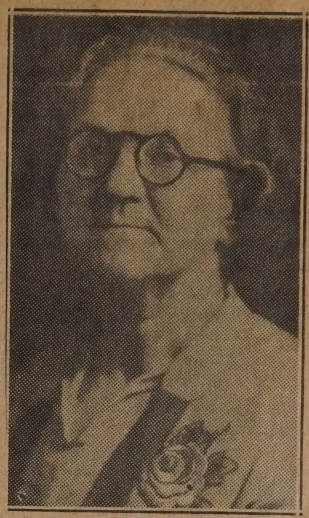
Others participating in the anniversary observance were: Mr. and Mrs. Smith Roush and daughters, Gloria Ann and Marilee, of Ellinwood, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roush and daughter, Nancy Ann; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Allen Walcher and children, Barbara Jean and Ernie Brock, of Blackwell; Mrs. A. A. Fisher, of Wellington, Kans.; E. R. Walcher and Sue Ala and Chester, of Wichita, Kans.

The couple were united in marriage in a wedding ceremony of 60 years ago in Thomas Ridge community in West Virginia. Mrs. Fisher, who before her marriage was Miss Susanna R. Thomas, was 16 at the time of the wedding and Mr. Fisher was 23.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Fisher were born in Mason county. At the time of his birth on Feb. 4, 1854, and at the time of her birth on March 16, 1861, the county was in Virginia, but the state was divided on June 20, 1863, and the county was then in West Virginia. This was near Point Pleasant, where the Kanawha river flows into the Ohio and where one of the important battles of the Civil war was fought.

Mr. Fisher heard the guns and cannons of the battle, but was too young to participate in the fighting. However, his older brother, Jake Fisher, 85, now of Conway Springs, and another brother, David, now of Enid, were active in the ranks of the Confederate army. Fisher has a brother, Robert, of Milan, Kans., and two other brothers, George and Johnnie, both living in West Virginia.





Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fisher

He is a brother of Mrs. Emma Duffy, of Checotah, the mother of Charles B. Duffy, state senator of this county. There were 14 children in the Fisher family.

Mrs. Fisher has two brothers, Charles and Grif Thomas, and three sisters, Mrs. Blanch Pickens, Mrs. Myrt Sayre and Mrs. Med Peck, who all reside in West Virginia, and another brother, John Thomas, of Illinois.

The couple have six children, seven grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher lived for several years in a 1-room log cabin where the first baby, Mrs. J. B. Sheets, was rocked in a sugar tree which had been hollowed out. From this community in West Virginia, they moved to Sugar Camp Hollow in the same state, later moving to Argonia, Kans., in 1909.

They came to Blackwell in 1918 and have resided at their present residence since that time. Mr. Fisher's occupations have been school teacher and farmer.

His hobbies are numerous for he delights in gardening, fishing, hunting and in carpenter work. In recent years he has constructed a miniature log cabin similar to his childhood home which shows one room and loft, with the cabin having only one window.

Mrs. Fisher's favorite pastime is piecing quilts and sewing.

Thursday, the 60th wedding anniversary of the couple, marked the first anniversary they have celebrated in eight years.

A TRANSPLANTED VIRGINIAN RAISES TOBACCO HERE

FISHER FAMILY TO HOLD ANNUAL REUNION

The annual reunion of the Fisher family will be held June 5 at the Park House in Wellington.

A sketch or narrative of the Helper family from pioneer days down to the present time, written by members of the family, follows:

Andrew Helper was born February 25, 1779 and his demise occurred February 25, 1854, or on the anniversary of his seventy-fifth year. Hanna (Utt) Helper was born Dec. 4, 1788, and passed away Jan. 24, 1875, at the age of 86 years, 1 month and 20 days, at the home of her daughter, Mary Jane Fisher, in Mason County, W. Va., with whom she had made her home for a number of years. As we all remember Mamma Helper, as we always called her, she was a great Bible reader and a devout Christian. These, our grandparents, were possibly married in 1802 as Mama frequently boasted of her marriage at the age of fourteen.

At the time of their marriage they no doubt were living in Venaugo County, Pa., and partially raised their family there before emigrating to Chester, Meigs County, Ohio. This change must have taken place near the year 1840 when William H. Harrison was elected president of the United States as I have heard my mother speak of living there at the time. Within a very few years they moved from Chester over into Mason County then Virginia, and made their home there, engaging in the weaver's business for a number of years, weaving double coverlets and all other kinds of weaving. From their union were born six children. Aunt Bettie Helper, the oldest, whom, I suppose, never left Pennsylvania and quite likely married near where she was born. She married William Crawford of Crawford County, Pa., and reared a family of eight children, three boys and five girls, viz: Robert, Elizabeth, Hannah, Mary, William, Sarah, John and Clara, all of whom are dead except John to whom I have written but received no reply. The second daughter of this union was Aunt Fannie Helper, who must have also married near where she was reared in Crawford County. She married James Proper and reared a family of ten children, four boys and six girls, viz: Andrew, Reuben, William, Leonard, Hannah, Ellen, Mary, Venie, Clarisi and Lucinda. The last, Lucinda, never married. This family is all dead with the exception of William, who went to the Black Hills of South Dakota and has not been heard from for 16 years. Leonard was last heard from in Nebraska. Uncle Jacob Helper, the only son and third child, married Nancy Lewis of Mason County and made his home in Roane County, Va.; to this union were born two daughters, Hannah E. and Cassie M. After a few years Aunt Nancy passed away and Uncle Jacob subsequently married Polly Hammock. To this union were born a boy and a girl, Henry and Sallie, both of whom are now dead. The fourth child of the family was Mary Jane Helper who married Henry Fisher of Mason County, Va., and to this union were born 14 children: Andrew H., Henry U., Charles B., Jacob W., James T., David W., Hannah E., Joseph A., Robert M., Mary L., John A., Emma F., George M., and Clarisa L. Six boys and four boys are still living. The fifth aunt, Rachel Helper, married Uncle David Fisher, a widower, and brother of our father, Henry Fisher, and reared a family of six children, three boys and three girls, David, Clarisa, Hannah, Mack, Adam and Emma. The sixth aunt, Clarisa Helper, married William Robinson and reared a family of four children, one boy and three girls, Franklin P., Sadie, Lyda and Willie A. Later Aunt Clarisa became a widow and married John McDermott, a widower, and to this union two children were born Belle and Homer. The writer of this sketch has had the pleasure, at one time or another, of meeting and visiting for a short while at least all of those mentioned in this sketch. Many years ago Aunt Bettie and Aunt Fannie, mentioned above, visited our home while Mama Helper was still living and spent two or three weeks with their mother and sister, our mother. This was about 60 years ago and while we were all quite young. The writer of this sketch is the fifth son of the Henry Fisher family.—J. T. Fisher, 524 West Oklahoma St., Blackwell, Okla.

Although growing tobacco is a rare sight in Blackwell, J. T. Fisher has no difficulty in raising a good crop in his back yard, as the pictures above indicate.

Fisher, who is 84, lives at 524 W. Oklahoma avenue. He was born in the tobacco country of Mason county, Virginia. He spent years working on his father's tobacco plantation near Point Pleasant, W. Virginia.

It was here that he learned the secret of raising tobacco successfully.

"Raising tobacco is not just a process of planting the seed in the ground and then setting back and watching it grow," said Mr. Fisher, "but entails a lot of hard work and painstaking care."

The ground for the tobacco in the Jones yard here was prepared by burning logs over the plowed ground and mixing the ashes with the dirt. Then the seed, which was obtained from a local grocer, was planted about the first of April, and the ground formed into hills.

After several month of weeding the plants, keeping off the harmful tobacco worm, and cutting off the little leaves, the tobacco begins to show light spots on the leaves. At this time the leaves are plucked and hung up inside a building to dry. (Note the lower picture.)

Later when the leaves have all turned brown they are "fired," or heated by a fire built under them. After further curing they are ready to strip and form into "hands," which is merely taking out the stems and putting them in small bundles.

Fisher, who does not use tobacco, sends these "hands" to his son C. E. Fisher of Audubon, Minn., who prefers the home grown variety of tobacco to the "dressed up" type. In turn he repays his father by sending him home cured meats every year.

Teacher Is Killed In Motor Accident

Dec. 15

Miss Elizabeth Fisher, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fisher, 524 West Oklahoma avenue, was killed in a motor car accident near her home in Aberdine, South Dakota, according to word received Wednesday by Mr. and Mrs. Fisher of this city.

Miss Fisher was teaching at a rural school nine miles from her home and had been driving from her home to school and back each day. When she did not arrive one afternoon at the usual time her parents went in search of her, and found her lying dead near the overturned car. Her neck was broken in the accident. She was 23 years old and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Fisher.

A. A. Fisher, brother of Everett, and Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Birdy Fisher Banner left Wednesday for Aberdine. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wa cher accompanied them as far as Wichita.

Stick Together Families

The stick-together families are happier,
by far,
Than the brothers and sisters who take separate highways are.
The gaddest people living are wholesome
folks who make,
A circle at the fireside, that no power
but death can break.
And the finest conventions ever held
beneath the sun,
Are the little family gatherings, when
the busy day is done.
There are rich folk, there are poor folk,
who imagine they are wise,
And they're very quick to shatter all the little family ties,
Each goes searching after pleasures in his own selected way,
Each with strangers likes to wander and with strangers likes to play.
But it's bitterness they harvest and it's empty joy they find,
For the children that are wisest are the stick-together kind.
There are some who seem to fancy that for gladness they must roam,
That for smiles that are brightest they must wander far from home.
That the strange friend is the true friend, and they travel far away.
But the gladdest sort of people when
the busy day is done,
Are the brothers and the sisters who together share their fun.
It's the stick-together family that wins
the joys of earth,
That hears the sweetest music, and that finds the finest mirth,
It's the old home roof that shelters all the charm that life can give,
There you find the gladdest playground, there the happiest spot to live,
And O, weary wandering brothers, if contentment you would find,
Come you back into the fireside, and be comrades with your kin.

—C. E. FISHER.

How Can I Best Utilize the California Death Index, 1940-1997?

Use the information from this database to record details about your ancestor. In addition, information in this database may provide enough details for you to obtain a death certificate, which can provide additional information, like the full name of the parents, and the name of the informant who noted the death (who may be a relative). Ancestry.com's "Order Original Record" link is one helpful way to order a copy of the original death record.

Description:
The Death Master File (DMF) from the Social Security Administration (SSA) currently contains over 74 million records. The current update reflects the latest information provided by the SSA as of Februrary 2005. The file is created from internal SSA records of deceased persons possessing social security numbers and whose deaths were reported to the SSA. Often this was done in connection with filing for death benefits by a family member, an attorney, a mortuary, etc. Each update of the DMF includes corrections to old data as well as additional names. [NOTE: If someone is missing from the list, it may be that the benefit was never requested, an error was made on the form requesting the benefit, or an error was made when entering the information into the SSDI.]

Dear Josephine:

I am so sorry that I have not returned an answer to your nice letter. So many things happen when you have children and grandbabies, etc. I really began to get with it on the Fisher family during the past month since Grandma Lestie's death (26 March 1979) when I found a few more old clippings and some items that have been of help. I am sending you copies of the information I have in hopes it will help you. Have written to see if Charles B. Duffey family can be of help to us also. He passed away shortly after Grandma did. We will hope that they kept some of his papers as I feel he was the one to do the research with my Great Grandfather Tom.

Is it possible that you have the address of Dr. Stanley Fisher? Is there anyone who attended the reunions from year to year that kept family records?

We still have a cousin who lives in Point Pleasant, West Virginia and who has told me she will help if she can. Now to just get the information we want and hope she can be of help.

If you have anything to add to what I have compiled, please send to me. It takes all of us to "Climb our Family Tree".

Thank you for typing the information and mailing to me. You have so helpful. Will there be a Fisher reunion this year? I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Barbara Walcher Fulton

Dear Florence,

What a joy it is to hear from you! I was sure that there was no one that had the information I was seeking.

I have been working on the family for sometime and certainly had a wonderful thrill finding that my Great-Grandfather, J.T. "Tom", was interested in writing things down.

My Grandmother, Lestie Walcher, had his family bible and many names and some dates were listed, but as you wrote not many places were listed. The letter by Charles Duffey, (Oct. 1943) is priceless to me and I am hoping it will be of help in the future. Thank you for copying it for me.

It seem rather unusual that the Great-Grandfather who I remember with the white beard and ears that he could wiggle to amuse the great-grandchildern, would be the one to keep the family history in his bible. Oh, the stories I have heard of his German temper!

Grandma Lestie celebrated her 81st birthday in May - last year on her 80th we had an open house for her at my parents (Edwin & Eileen Walcher) home in Blackwell. It was such a suprise for her. She is the last remaing child of J.T. and Suzanna (Tude) Thomas Fisher.

I married Jack Fulton in 1953 and we have three children. Our oldest, Jean Ann, is 21, married and living in Guymon, Oklahoma. Nancy is 18 and graduated from College High School this May and is going to college at Tonkawa this fall, she also works at our local hospital. Kenneth Wayne is 16 and our basketball player and our child who thinks he'd like to be a doctor. This has meant extra studies and extra activities, so many more than the girls were interested in doing.

So many questions have come to mind since I received your letter. Is Charles Duffey living? Is anyone keeping records of the family now? Who are Dr. Stanley Fisher's parents and his address, if he attends reunions, he must be interested in the family. Do you have a copy of Roscoe Fowler's letter to the Fisher family? It contained pictures of the old home in West Virginia. I have an extra copy if you donot have one.

Please again thank you for your reply. I do hope we can come to the Fisher Reunion next year. Had I known we would have come this year as we were in Blackwell that weekend. Gma Lestie probably knew but is not much interested in things like that so probably put it out of her mind. Please do continue to write me any information of interest, I will do the same.

Very Sincerely
Barbara Walcher Fulton

Dear Florence,

What a joy it is to hear from you! I was sure that there was no one that had the information I was seeking.

I have been working on the family for generations and certainly was a wonderful thrill finding that my Great-Grandfather, J.T. "Tom", was interested in getting things done.

My Grandmother, Lestia Palmer, had been family bible and many names and some dates were listed, but no you sweets not many places were listed. The letter by Charles Butler (Oct. 1943) is priceless to me and I am hoping it will be of help in the future. Thank you for copying it for me.

It seems rather unusual that the Great-Grandfather who I remember with the white beard and sure that he could simply to name the great-grandchildren, would be the one to keep the family history in his bible. Oh, the stories I have heard of his German temper!

Grandma Lestia celebrated her 81st birthday in May - last year on her 80th we had an open house for her at my parents (Edwin & Eileen Palmer) home in Bloomfield. It was such a surprise for her. She is the last remaining child of J.T. and Susanna (Pope) Thomas Fisher.

I married Jack Fulton in 1951 and we have three children. Our oldest, Kelly Ann, is 27, married and living in Bryson, Oklahoma. Randy is 18 and graduated from Colleges Hill School this May and is going to college at Tonkawa this fall, she also works at our local hospital. Kathleen Wayne is 16 and our basketball player and our child who thinks he'd like to be a doctor. This has meant extra studies and extra activities, so many more times the girls were interested in doing.

So many questions have come to mind since I received your letter. Is Charles Butler living? Is anyone keeping records of the family now? Who are Mr. Stanley Fisher's parents and his address, if he attends reunions, he must be interested in the family. Do you have a copy of Pocoe Foster's letter to the Fisher Family? It contained history of the old home in West Virginia. I have an extra copy if you donot have one.

Please again thank you for your reply. I do hope to come to the Fisher Reunion next year. Had I known we could have come this year as we were in Minnesota that weekend. Grandma Lestia probably knew but is not much interested in things like that so probably put it out of her mind. Please do continue to write as my interest of interest. I will do the same.

Dear Barbara,

At the Fisher Re-union yesterday in Wellington, your letter surfaced again, Carl McKee our president had put it away after the last reunion and had forgotten it I guess. He said he didnt have any of the answers for your chart.

Well, I volunteered to answer as I had been doing a little genealogy on the Fisher line. I have been working on my own lineage for about 15 years.

I am enclosing a Fisher Family History which some of the members up here have had for several years, which seems to have originated at Blackwell and Ponca City. There is no date. That is the big problem there are no dates to the early ancestors.

I have written several times trying to find information from Mason Co. and from Richmond. So far I havent found any more.

You are probably wondering who I am. I married A. A. Fisher in 1974. Our families have been friends of long standing. Our mates having passed on several years ago. We are making the best of what is left of our lives. Ata bought a Motor home and we expect to travel a bit.

I am also enclosing information on the families that I know, and I would be happy to correspond in regard to your families. If you have questions that arent answered by what I am sending feel free to ask for more.

Ata A Fisher is the son of Joseph Adam Fisher and Estella Thompson and he married Blanche Cooksey 12 Dec. 1923. They had one son Gerald Ray Fisher born 12 Nov. 1928. Gerald married Betty Louise Walker who was born 12 Dec. 1932. They were married 22 Dec. 1953. They have three children as follows: Mary Louise born 2 August 1955, Mark Ray, born 10 July, 1957 and Glen Alan, born 31 Aug. 1965. They live on the farm where Ata and Blanche lived, Northwest of Freeport, Ks. However their address is Harper, Kansas.

Robert H. Fisher, son of R. M. Fisher 1860, died 7 Apr. 1976 and is buried at Argonia . His wife Ruby Cappus Fisher is in a Rest Home in Wellington.

Yesterday at the Reunion it was announced that Calla L. Fisher Thompson, 87 died the 5th of June and the funeral would be the 8th. She had a daughter Gwendolyn Sanders of Belle Plaine; sister Mrs. Adrian Sneeringer of Conway Springs, Ks. Calla was a daughter of J. W. (Jake) Fisher who married Regina Jones.

Carl McKee is a nephew of my husband (Ata A. Fisher who is a son of J. A. (Joe) Fisher) as you will see on the Fisher Family History.

The next Fisher reunion will be June 5th, 1977 At Wellington, Kansas. You might like to come up. There werent very many came yesterday. The older ones either arent here anymore or are unable to attend. And it seems the younger ones have too much else to do. Dr. Stanley Fisher from Missouri and his wife come every year. Sometimes people from Texas come, but not the last two times.

I'll be glad to try to answer any questions you might have.

Sincerely,
Josephine Fisher

I'm sorry your letter was mislaid

Dear Barbara,

At the Fisher Re-union yesterday in Wellington, your letter surfaced again. Carl Moles our president had yet it away after the last meeting and had forgotten its I guess. He said he didn't have any of the answers for your chart.

Well, I volunteered to answer as I had been doing a little genealogy on the Fisher line. I have been working on my own lineage for about 15 years.

I am molesting a Fisher family History which does of the members go back have had for several years, which seems to have originated at Blanchard and Pence City. There is no date. That is the big problem there are no dates to the early ancestors.

I have written several times trying to find information from Mason co. and from Richmond. So far I haven't found any more.

You are probably wondering who I am. I married A. A. Fisher in 1929. Our families have been friends of long standing. Our mates having passed on several years ago. We are making the best of what is left of our lives. Ada bought a Motor home and we expect to travel a bit.

I am also molesting information on the families that I know, and I would be happy to correspond in regard to your families. If you have questions that aren't answered by what I am sending feel free to ask for more.

Ada A Fisher is the son of Joseph Adam Fisher and Estella Thompson and he married Blanche Cooksey 12 Dec. 1923. They had one son Gerald Ray Fisher born 12 Nov. 1928. Gerald married Betty Louise Walker who was born 12 Dec. 1932. They were married 22 Dec. 1953. They have three children as follows: Mary Louise born 2 August 1955, Mark Ray, born 10 July, 1957 and Glen Alan, born 21 Apr. 1959. They live on the farm where Ada and Blanche lived, Northwest of Emporia, Ks. However their address is Harper, Kansas.

Robert H. Fisher, son of S. H. Fisher 1850, died 7 Apr. 1976 and is buried at Argonia . His wife Ruby Cappes Fisher is in a rest home in Wellington.

Yesterday at the Reunion it was announced that Della L. Fisher Thompson, Ay died the 5th of June and the funeral would be the 8th. She had a daughter Dorothy Barbara of Della Fisher; sister Mrs. Adelia Spearinger of Conway Springs, Ks. Della was a daughter of L. W. (Jack) Fisher who married Regina Jones.

Carl Moles is a nephew of my husband Ada A. Fisher who is a son of L. A. (Joe) Fisher as you will see on the Fisher Family History.

The next Fisher reunion will be June 5th, 1977 At Wellington, Kansas. You might like to come up. There weren't very many came yesterday. The older ones either about here anymore or are unable to attend. And it seems the younger ones have too much else to do. Dr. Stanley Fisher from Missouri and his wife came every year.
